The Oread, 1927

Miss O'Sullivan

This year the OREAD is appropriately dedicated to Miss O'Sullivan because we, the class of nineteen hundred and twenty-seven, wish to express at least in some measure, our appreciation of the interest she has taken in our class and its welfare.

Miss O'Sullivan, although a teacher of Junior English and director of Junior Dramatics, has always found time, besides teaching and carrying on her own work, to direct our dramatic attempts. She has, for three years, taken all the responsibility that the students lacked and has enabled the Senior class, by means of a Stunt Nite, to procure money for their year book, the OREAD. Miss O'Sullivan not only originated these productions, but also advertised, directed and helped in every possible manner. The public was at first attracted only by the novelty of a High School Stunt Nite, but each year, its fame grew until our class attained the title of Seniors. We persuaded Miss O'Sullivan to be our director and with her help chose a musical comedy entitled "Pickles." To direct such a production even with professionals would have been no easy task, but when more than two-thirds of the chorus had never even set foot upon a stage, well, draw your own conclusions! But Miss O'Sullivan surmounted every difficulty, with the faculty and student body backing her, and spent hour after hour of her valuable time to rehearse the cast and chorus.

The students, the public and in fact the whole city of Burlington realize that "Pickles" was Miss O'Sullivan's crowning achievement. We can not by mere words repay her for the time and effort she has spent in our behalf, but we can and do extend to her, our most grateful thanks and appreciation.

Foreword

AS the years go on and we pass out on "Life's Great Highway", it will be a pleasure to recall memories of our High School Days and of our classmates.

¶ It is for the purpose of perpetuating these memories, that the 1927 OREAD has been published.

¶ In passing, we proudly note, that we are the last class to have four years at "B. H. S." and enter High School under the illustrious title of "Freshmen".

¶ The OREAD Board has undertaken to present to you in a brief outline, our four happy years of High School life.

¶ And we do now submit this book in the hope that it may serve as a fitting memorial for the Class of 1927.

Sonnet

When I remember all the toilsome way
That lies for my reluctant feet to tread.
And how at length it leads but to the day
Whereon no glimmer of the sun is shed,
Yea, where the light is darkness, in my heart
I question whether life be worth the pain
Of struggle: whether for each ache and smart
The end will yield me recompense again.
But this I know: in failure or success,
Struggle is gain; and he that wins no crown,
So he but strives, is victor none the less,
And triumphs howsoe'er fate cast him down,
For his own heart shall make life glad or drear,
And though he may not hope, he need not fear.

CLASS MOTTO—Facta non verba

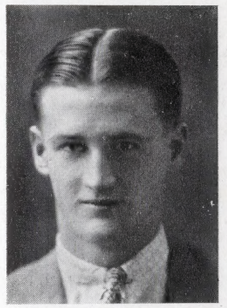
Senior Editorial



Our high school life, when carefully considered, seems on the whole to have passed very rapidly. It seems but yesterday that we entered the high school as green, scrub-by "Frosh" and now in our mighty leap we have arrived at our goal—graduation. Now as we are at last on the threshold of the future, we have a different attitude toward school. Before, we were in a great hurry to leave and to set out on our college and business life. But now as that eventful day draws near, we are more and more loath to leave the pleasant scenes and good times of old Edmunds. For we realize that once graduated, there will come to us the necessity of parting, never to fully reunite and seldom to see the majority of our classmates again. All that we shall have to remember them by will be the pleasant memories of by-gone days to be cherished for long years to come.

The future holds forth for us unlimited possibilities of success. The way we grasp these opportunities will determine into what kind of men and women of the world we shall develop. Little did we realize before that the oft-repeated warning, "You are the future citizens of the country," would so soon prove true. But now we are seriously impressed by the truth in this statement and will strive to do our best to become worthy citizens.

When the doors of old Edmunds first received us, we were a disunited group of green "Frosh," in unfamiliar surroundings. Soon, however, we became organized and have ever since been as one unit. We have a record in all divisions of school activities of which any class may well be proud. Our scholastic record, the main purpose of our school life, compares favorably with the best; our social activities are all marked with a touch of comradeship and good-will which have made them all great successes, and in athletics we are second to none and have contributed more than our share of members to all the branches of sport.

Another thing we must not forget is our principals and the faculty. We have found them not harsh, tyrannical creatures as we had feared, but on the contrary, pleasant, kindly human beings willing to help us in any way and at any time; we cannot express adequately in words our thanks to those who have so assisted us in social and scholastic activities.

So, as we leave our dear old school, let us strive to keep the old B. H. S. spirit prominent in all our future activities, and to appreciate fully the benefits and help received here and, above all, to live up to our motto, "Facta non verba," in all of our future life.

ADAMS, ROGERS — 132 N. Prospect St.
"Rag" — General

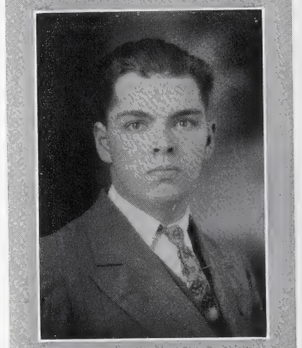
"Much ado about nothing."

Did anyone ever hear of Rogers' ambition—sh-h—it's a secret, but if you promise not to tell—he's going to invent a revolving platform around the silent policemen on Church Street so as to save gas and general wear and tear on his car.

Honors: Oread Stunt Nite (4); Dramatic Club (4); Photo-Play Club (4).



ALLEN, JAMES — 220 East Ave.
"Nutty," "Jimmie" — Technical

"Behold the chemist."

"'Tis a wise cork that knows its own pop," at least when "Jimmie" is turned loose in his own "lab" and if there be anything a struggling chemist wants to know, he knows. Sometimes 'tis more vigorous than pleasing.

Honors: Orchestra (1), (2), (3), (4); Orchestra Concert (1), (2), (3), (4); Band (4); Circus (1).

ARBUTHNOT, PHYLLIS M. — 302 Main St.
"Phil" — College Preparatory

"Fairest of maids."

Military life and the "Phi Delts" hold great attractions for "Phil"—oh, no! "Phil" wasn't talking. What would "Pickles" have been without "Phil"? "Pardon me, sir, are you a general?" Seven whole words. "Phil" will be an actress yet.

Honors: Smokeless Smoker (3); Mothers' Club Affairs; Dramatic Club (3), (4); Field Day; Art Club; Photo-Play Club (4); Oread Stunt Nite (2), (3), (4); Circus (1); 150th Anniversary; Mothers' Club Vaudeville; Class Secretary; French Club Cabaret; Class Pin Committee; Senior Dance Committee; Class Colors Committee; Oread Board (4); Register Board (4); Class Day Chorus.

BABSON VESTA — 235 North St.
"Scotty" — Commercial Course

"The secret of happiness is to make others happy."

A pleasanter or more agreeable girl than Vesta is hard to find. Her sunny smile cheers all those who know her. She is also a shining light on the basketball floor and in spite of "Hard(y)" knocks we know she'll come out on top.

Honors: Class Basketball (2), (3), Manager (3); Varsity Basketball (4); Underwood Certificate of Proficiency; Senior Dramatic Club; "B" Club.

BARBOUR, VERA E. — 48 Peru St.
"Midget" — General

"I think they talk of me,
For they laugh continually."

"Burlington rah! rah! Barbour!" This is what everyone hears when attending a B. H. S. girls' basketball game. What eyes that girl has, and we'll say she uses them for other purposes aside from baskets. One can always see that "Sleepy" expression in her eyes. Vera came to us from the "wide open spaces" of the far West. It seems as though she has always been with us and we feel honored by her friendship.

Honors: Dramatic Club (3), (4); Debating Club (4); French Club (2), (3), (4); Art Club (4); Varsity Basketball (3), (4); Class Basketball (1), (2); All-league Team (1), (2); Circus (1); Secretary of Art Club; Class Day Usher (3); Photo-Play Club (4); "B" Club.

BARTLETT, LYDIA P. — Shelburne, Rd.
"Lydja," "Lyd" — College Preparatory

"She has a pleasing smile."

"Lyd" is one of those girls who's lucky enough to drive a car and she surely isn't selfish with it, either. "Lydja" is a wonderful cook. We expect "Lydja" will end up in Alburgh.

Honors: Class Day Decoration Committee; Junior Banquet Committee; Vice-President (3), (4); Class Day Usher; Dramatic Club (3), (4); Art Club; Class Basketball (1), (2), Manager (4); Circus (1); Photo-Play Club (4).

BASRALIAN, JOSEPH — 288 Maple St.
"Joe" — College Preparatory

"He crossed the ocean to fulfil his ambitions."

"Joe," some of our greatest men were from abroad and we expect to hear quite a bit about you. All the rewards that you will reap, and you will reap many, will be won through your own work. It is due to "Joe's" initiative that a Photo-Play Club has been possible.

Honors: French Club (4); Debating Club (4); President of Photo-Play Club (4); Dramatic Club (4).

BAYARSKY, RACHEL — 160 Intervale Ave.
"Rae" — Commercial

"She would talk; how she would talk."

Your list of honors shows how varied have been your abilities and interests at B. H. S. We all know that "Rae" is an ambitious, studious girl and has all the qualifications of a good sport. She can be frequently seen at the High School dances, "tripping the light fantastic." May your future be as pleasant as your past.

Honors: Dramatic Club (3), (4); O. G. A. Certificate; Circus (1); Remington Proficiency Certificate (4); Underwood Primary (4); 150th Anniversary; Field Day (1).

BELAIR, MARY I. — Alburgh
"Irene" — General

"A lady of solitude."

Irene is a girl of studious and dignified mien but underneath—. How about the noon of the general walk-out in Room 6?

Honors: Dramatic Club (3), (4); French Club (2), (3), (4); Art Club (3), (4); French Cabaret (3).

BERGER, PEARY — 110 Archibald St.
"Commodore" — General

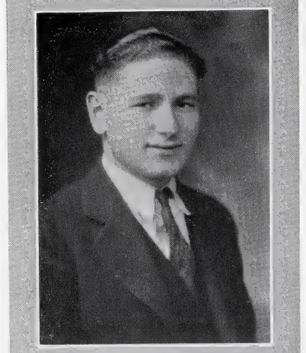
"The man that blushes is not quite a brute."

Room 4 is some room, is it not, Peary? We know that if you should ever come back to visit B. H. S. the first thing that you would do would be to enter Room 4 again (and late at that). Peary can speak interestingly on many subjects and he is an able objector to other people's opinions.

Honors: Debating Club (3), (4); Manager Junior Debating Team (3); Field Day; Circus (1); Dramatic Club (4); Photo-Play Club (4).



BESSEY, VIRGINIA — 28 Clarke St.
"Jinny" — General

"Is this the face that launched a thousand ships?"

"Jinny" went to Loon Lake last summer—sh-hhh—blank, blank—censored!! Beautiful but dumb does not hold with Virginia, we say, and so does Jack! "Pipe" the honors.

Honors: Dramatic Club (3), (4); French Club (2), (3), (4); Music Club; Field Day; Oread Stunt Nite (1), (2), (3); Freshman Reception Stunts; Circus (1); 150th Anniversary; Mothers' Club Vaudeville; French Club Cabaret; Class Motto Committee; Register Board (3); Mothers' Club Affairs; Charity Committee; Class Tax Committee; Class Pin Committee (1); Senior Dance Committee (3); Class Colors Committee; Class Day Chorus (2); Prehistoric Party (3).

BEVINS, MAURICE — 79 Bank St.
"Beef" — General

"'Twas but a dream—let it pass;
Let it vanish like so many others."

"Beef" has a strange liking for blonde hair (?) "Slickum" and ice cream (especially that at Booth's Drug Store). He is a loyal supporter of his class as he has proved not only by being on the squad of '27's basketball team, but also an efficient baseball player during his Junior and Sophomore years.

Honors: Treasurer Senior Dramatic Club (4); Class Baseball (2), (3); Photo-Play Club (4).

BISBEE, FAY — 144 S. Willard St.

"Fay" — General

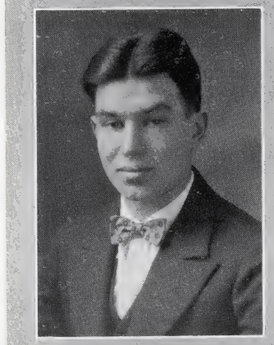
"His arm was strong. I know whereof I speak."

Fay claims the friendship of practically all the girls in the class of '27, but poor boys, they are too young and unsophisticated. Fay is usually very quiet, but at times her mood varies and we'll say she's a good fun-maker. Wherever Fay goes she is always accompanied by a "Ray" of sunshine.

Honors: Oread Stunt Nite (4); Class Day Usher (3); Junior Banquet Committee; Circus (1); Art Club (3); French Club (4); Dramatic Club (4).



BISHOP, ORVILLE — Shelburne

"Orville" — General

"And still they come, each better than the last."

Orville is an accomplished musician but there seems to be a good deal of silent rivalry in the orchestra over the cornet soloist. We predict in the future a "Corbin and Bishop trumpet corps." Not only is Bishop a musician but he is also our book-store keeper. Therefore from him comes most of our sources of knowledge.

Honors: Orchestra Concert (4); Photo-Play Club (4).

BISSETTE, FLORENCE — 134 Park St.

"Jonnie" — Commercial

"Big minds for little people."

"Jonnie is another of the many good sports of the Senior class. She is a commercial student and shows by her many honors that she is a prominent figure in B. H. S. Her record on this year's Senior class team assures us that she will again be on the "all-league" team.

Honors: Class Basketball (1), (2), (3), (4), Captain (1), (3); Register Board (4); Oread Board (4); Mothers'-Club Prize (3); Primary Award of Proficiency on Remington; Primary Award of Proficiency on Underwood; Primary Award of Proficiency on Royal; Miss Henderson's Office Force; Senior Dramatic Club; All-league Basketball Team (3); Oread Nominating Committee; Bronze Pin on L. C. Smith; Bronze Pin on Underwood Typewriter; O. A. T.

BOOTH, ELEANOR — 303 Pearl St

"Tubby" — College Preparatory

"And many a wicked smile she smole,
And many a wink she wonk."

Here is the reason why Maurice Bevins hangs around the Park Drug Store. Can't say that we blame him. Could you imagine "Tubby" spending a quiet evening at home studying?

Honors: Dramatic Club (3), (4); French Club (3), (4); Field Day; Oread Stunt Nite (2), (3); Freshman Reception Entertainment; Circus (1); 150th Anniversary; Mothers' Club Vaudeville; Photo-Play Club (4).

BOYCE, EDMUND G. — Plattsville, Conn.

"Hick," "Boyce-ite" — General

"Musicians are born, not made."

Ever since "Hick" started playing a saxophone the sporting goods stores have had an enormous increase in shot-gun sales. Nevertheless, he is "blowing" his way through B. H. S.

Honors: Orchestra (4); Band (4); Concert (4).

BROWN, GRACE A. — 392 North St.

"Gracie" — General

"She danced her way through school."

Don't be concerned about the far-away look in this maiden's eyes. It is nothing unusual and then she always comes to in the "Nick" of time.

Honors: President Music Club (3); Dramatic Club (3), (4); Commencement Chorus (3); Photo-Play Club (4).

BROWN, MARION — 23 St. Louis St.
"Brownie" — General

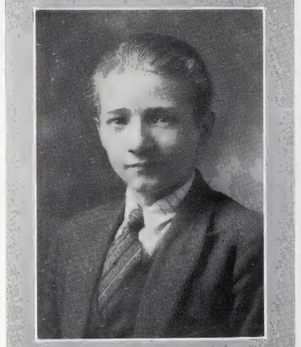
"You will conquer more surely by prudence than by passion."

Marion is one of those people who say little and do much. She is a good sport and is always willing to do a good deed for someone. She is an excellent student and we are sure she will succeed.

Honors: Dramatic Club (3), (4); French Club; O. G. A.



BRUCE, ERIC D. — Williston
"Eric" — General

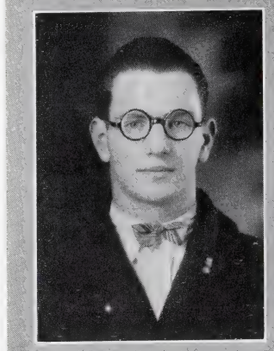
"Silence is golden."

Eric comes from the great city of Williston. For this reason we have been unable to become acquainted with him. There is something about him one cannot help but admire and we feel sure that in the future Williston will be unable to keep him, and B. H. S. will be proud of him.



BULLOCK, ELMER — Milton
"Elmer" — General

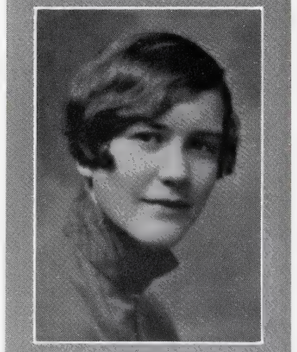
"Thy modesty's a candle to thy merit."

Modesty is a good virtue, it stands out. Let it always remain with you, Elmer, but don't let it keep you back. Elmer's sure persistent in doing his work up properly and he's in the cheering at all school and class games We sure appreciate your school spirit, Elmer.

Honors: Field Day (1); Class Baseball (3).



BURNS, HELEN H. — 453 S. Willard St.
"Jackie" — College Preparatory

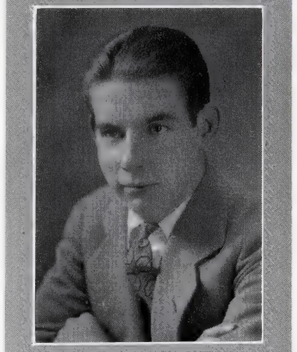
"Much study has made me pale, thin, and leaden eyed."

Would anyone even think a girl with a face like "Jackie's" could be deeply infatuated with "Saints"? Her only fault is that laugh. No one could ever mistake Helen for any other than herself, after one has once had the pleasure of hearing her. Despite her liking for "Saints" and that laugh she is one of our most brilliant students.

Honors: Dramatic Club (3), (4); French Club (3), (4); Stunt Nite (4); Class Basketball (3), (4); Circus; Mothers' Club Carnival (2); Mothers' Club Tea; Photo-Play Club (4).



BUTTERFIELD, BRUCE B. — 8 Greene St
"Bruce" — College Preparatory

"Why rush around at such a pace
When slow and steady wins the race?"

Bruce matches his disposition against his studies and wins out with that smile which carries him through everything. Bruce has been a loyal supporter of our class and we wish him success in future years.

Honors: President (3); Register Board (3), (4); Baseball Manager (4); Dramatic Club (3), (4); French Club (3); Oread Stunt Nite (2), (4); Circus (1).

CASHMAN, GRACE L. — 109 Summit St.
"Grace" — College Preparatory

"To beguile many and be beguiled by one."

Grace has recently become interested in the Brotherhood of Man. We believe it is Sigma Nu or the "Owls." She is also the horsewoman of B. H. S. Is that the way you keep that figure, Grace, or is it your dancing?

Honors: Oread Stunt Nite (2), (3), (4); Freshman Reception Stunt (2); Circus (1); 150th Anniversary; Mothers' Club Vaudeville; French Club Cabaret; Junior Banquet Committee; Dramatic Club Nominating Committee (4); Dramatic Club (3), (4); Oread Board; Register Board (4); Commencement Chorus (1); Class Day Chorus (1); Junior Banquet Speaker; Mothers' Club Affairs; French Club (3), (4).

CLAFLIN, ALICE E. 94 East Ave.
"Al" General

"What a sweet delight a quiet life affords, 'Al'."

"Al" is a very quiet, unassuming person but when you get to know her she is a true friend and a good sport. We all feel sure that she will make a success in life.

Honors: French Club (3); Junior Dramatic Club; 150th Anniversary; Glee Club (1).

CLAY, HELENE 19 Monroe St.
"Penney" General

"Good sense and good nature are never separated."

Helene has not been with us very long but she has shown us in this short time that she is an all-around good sport. She always has a smile for everyone. Her name is frequently on the Honor Roll as well as in the social calendar. We wish you all of the success in the world, "Penny"!

Honors: French Club (4); Class Basketball (4); Senior Dramatic Club (4); Debating Club (4); Photo-Play Club (4).

COHEN, HERBERT 265 N. Winooski Ave.
"Herb" Commercial

"I'm not tired, I'm just slow."

If looks were daggers Herbert would have died long ago from the looks he gets when he walks into Room 17 after holding up the room for about two minutes after closing time. But he doesn't seem to care. He has plenty of time to spend. He says the reason why so many men die so young is because they exert themselves too much. You will never die of that, Herbert.

Honors: Dramatic Club (3); Spanish Club (3); Field Day; Class Basketball; Underwood Proficiency Certificate; Remington Proficiency Certificate; O. A. T. Junior Test.

COLLINS, DOROTHY A. 128 S. Willard St.
"Dot" General

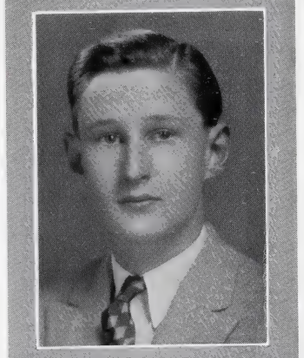
"A dainty pair of glasses on her dainty little nose
Adds to her look of culture and her statue-like repose."

Here is a model cook. Yes, "Dot" can even boil water without scorching it! Thanks to our wonderful course in home economics. "Dot" will have no other color but "White."

Honors: Dramatic Club (3), (4); Dramatic Club Play Committee (4); Class Day Decoration Committee (3); Circus (1); Field Day; 150th Anniversary; Mothers' Club Affairs.



CORBIN, STUART S. 475 S. Willard St.
"Stew" College Preparatory
"The Stubborn Stuart"

"From his head to his feet he is all mirth."

(Ah-h-h-h-h-h-h) (Captain Ferri Kinski!) "Stew" has the largest heart and imagination in captivity and is as well the only serious (?) member of the class of '27. What would "Pickles" have been without "Stew"?

Honors: Dramatic Club (3), (4); Interscholastic Debating Team (4); Class Basketball (2), (3), (4); Class Champions (3); Circus (1); 150th Anniversary; Register Board (4); Orchestra (2), (3), (4); Orchestra Concert (2), (3), (4); Oread Stunt (4).

COWLES, RICHARD H. 100 Ledge Rd.
"Dick" College Preparatory

"Let me live in a house by the side of the road
And be a friend to man."

When one has become acquainted with "Dick" and has had the honor of hearing him recite, one realizes that he is following closely in his father's steps, and that the legal profession will have lost a promising member if he does not continue on the same. We will say this for "Dick," if he does become a lawyer, no woman will ever be able to put anything over on him.

Honors: Orchestra and Band (3), (4); Register Board (4); Oread Board (4); French Club (3), (4); Graduation Day Usher (3); Circus (1); Dramatic Club (3), (4); Daily News Board (4); French Club Cabaret (3); Oread Stunt Nite (4); Photo-Play Club (4); Prize Speaking (4).

CROCKETT, CHARLES N. 179 Loomis St.

"Chick" College Preparatory
"Cruising Crockett"

"No one but yourself can be his parallel."

"Chick's" one ambition is to be a combination Hercules and Nurmi. To hear him tell it, "Chick" built the new Chapel. We all think "Chick" must have been vaccinated with a victrola needle.

Honors: Dramatic Club (4); French Club (2), (3), Treasurer (4), President (4); Varsity Track (3), (4); Class Basketball (3), (4), Class Champions (3); Field Day (1); 150th Anniversary Pageant; French Club Cabaret (3); Class Ring Committee; OREAD Nominating Committee; Register Board (4).

CUTTING, DANIEL Bishop Hopkins Hall

"Dan" General

"Come, trip it as you go,
On the light fantastic toe."

The Beau Brummel and Arthur Murray of our class. He challenges any collegiate youth to a dancing contest to be held at the Blue Lantern. If Daniel could study as well as he can dance what a boy he would be.

Honors: Photo-Play Club (4); OREAD Stunt Nite (4); Judging Contest Cambridge High (3); Winter Carnival (1), (2).

DAVIS, EILENE M. 507 S. Union St.

"Shooky" General

"A most gentle maid."

Although Eilene did not join us until last year, yet we have found out that she is a good sport and an all-around girl. Here's wishing you the best of luck, Eilene.

Honors: Art Club (3), (4), President (4); Dramatic Club (4); Underwood Primary Certificate; Commencement Chorus (3); O. A. T. Certificate; Music Club (3); Remington Primary Certificate; Photo-Play Club (4).

DONALDSON, GEORGE M. 500 St. Paul St.

"Malcolm" College Preparatory

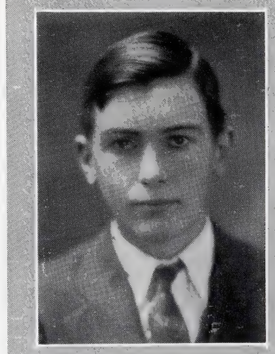
"A prim and proper gentleman."

Malcolm came way from Alaska to be with us this year. He showed us that he is the real stuff when he went out for varsity football. Can you imagine, Malcolm laughed right out in English class one day.

Honors: Class Basketball (3), (4), Captain (4); French Club (3); Rifle Team (3).



DUGUID, PEARL 324 Pearl St.

"Pearl" College Preparatory

"A small body, but a mighty mind."

Quiet and demure though she may seem—look again!—her hidden possibilities are great. Pearl is a very popular member of our class and would be missed, especially in algebra class, if she should leave us.

Honors: French Club (2), (3); Spanish Club (2), (3); Class Basketball (2); Class Day Usher; Dramatic Club (3), (4), Secretary (4).

EVANS, HARRISON F. 45 Catherine St.

"Harris," "Evans" College Preparatory

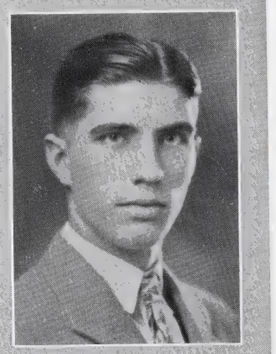
"Men of few words are the best men."

Harrison is one of the "happy-go-lucky" boys around school. His cleverness is plausibly explained by his middle name. They say that his pastime is algebra and biology. In the winter the place to look for Evans is at Chiott's or some other skating rink. We wonder if his rosy cheeks are due to his skating. Best of luck when you leave us, Harrison.

Honors: Track (3), (4).



FIFIELD, FISKE H. South Hero
"Fiske," "Henry" General

Although Fiske's interests during his stay with us have been mostly outside our ken, he has proven himself a "good fellow" in more ways than one. His reputation as one of Miss Pease's squarest will carry him far. Good luck to you, Fiske.

Honors: Class Baseball (2); Field Day (1); Dramatic Club (3), (4); Photo-Play Club (4).

FINE, LUCILLE E. 110 College St.
"Lucille" College Preparatory

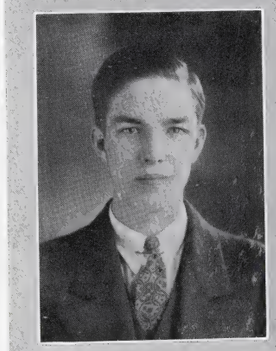
"Whence is thy learning? Hast thy toil o'er books consumed the midnight oil?"

After one has met Lucille one invariably exclaims, "Isn't she a peach?" and any member of '27 would reply, "She surely is." Lucille is the kind that encourages the teachers after a day of fruitless efforts to pump knowledge into the heads of some students. Lucille has been a loyal supporter of the class and she has many friends.

Honors: Dramatic Club (3), (4); Debating Club (3), (4), Vice-President (4); French Club (2), (3), (4), Vice-President (4); Circus (1); French Club Cabaret (3); Register Board (4); Captain Junior Class Debating Team; Editor-in-Chief Daily News Board (4); Junior Banquet Speaker; Underwood Bronze Medal; Junior O. A. T. Certificate; Photo-Play Club (4); Prize Speaking (4).



FISHER, KENNETH B. 116 Park St.
"Ken," "Fish" General

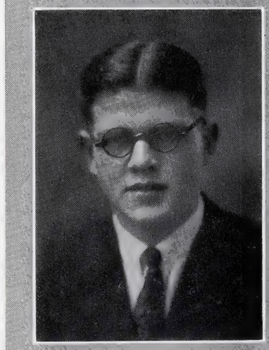
"My mind to me a kingdom is."

"Ken" is a scholarly young gentleman who has worked his way to high standing in the eyes of his fellow students. "Early to bed and early to rise" is his motto.

Honors: Mothers' Club Prize $25; Commencement Day Usher; Dramatic Club (4); Photo-Play Club (4).



FISKE, STANLEY A. New Haven Jct.
"Stan" General

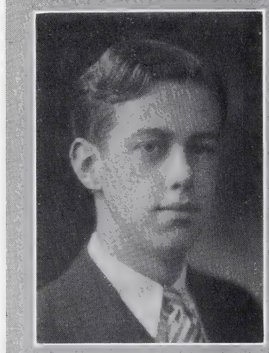
"Fearless minds climb soonest unto crowns."

"Stan" is the heavyweight of Room 6. This is his first year at B. H. S. We are proud to think that he comes from New Haven every morning to be with us. "Stan" is a persistent worker and we know he will succeed.

Honors: Class Basketball (1); Class Baseball (1); Varsity Basketball (3); Varsity Baseball (3); Photo-Play Club (4).



FORVILLE, LAWRENCE H. 303 S. Winooski Ave.
"Larry," "Forve" College Preparatory

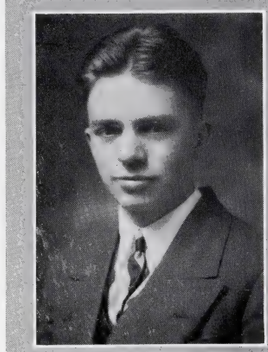
"A friend to all the world."

One of "Larry's pet expressions in solid class is "Hey, Freeman—?" "Forve" has grinned his way through B. H. S., making friends at every turn, until we just couldn't get along without him.

Honors: Dramatic Club (4); Debating Club (4).



FREEMAN, WILLIAM W. 57 Williams St.
"Bill" College Preparatory

"Oh, what a 'sheik' he is."

Behold this "flaming Apollo." Although a "sheik," "Bill" is an excellent scholar and athlete. "Bill" causes not a few "palps" among the weaker sex, especially the Juniors.

Honors: Dramatic Club (3), (4), President (4); Manager Track (3), (4); Class Basketball (3); Oread Stunt Nite (2), (3), (4); Class President (2); Commencement Day Usher (3); Junior Banquet Speaker.

FULLER, LLOYD — Williston
"Lloyd" — Technical

"Deny him merit if you can."

Lloyd did not become a member of our class until this year. During the short time that he has been with us we have become acquainted with him and regret that he entered the class of '27 so late. It was mainly his fightin' spirit that brought the B. H. S. football team all through the season as well as it did. We know that this same spirit will carry him through life with flying colors.

Honors: Varsity Football (4); Class Secretary (4); Baseball (4); Dramatic Club (4); Photo-Play Club (4).

GREY, GLADYS M. — Appletree Point
"Glad" — Commercial

"Success belongs to those who strive."

"Glad" is a prize theme writer, one who writes about other people because she knows them and their surroundings. She, we are sure, will be in the "Who's Who in America" for 1937. Gladys has a sunny personality, so great an asset in life that she can't help but come out ahead.

Honors: Dramatic Club (3), (4); Class Day Usher (3); Underwood Certificate of Proficiency (4); Dramatic Club (4).

GREENE, FLORENCE — 10 Washington St.
"Flossie" — Commercial

"To bob or not to bob, that is the question."

"Flossie" is one of 1927's prize commercial students and is one of the few members in the class who has not bobbed her hair. "Flossie" is quiet but has a very engaging personality that will push her ahead in her future work. She is also a fine sport and is always willing to do a good deed for others. Here's hoping for your success, "Flossie."

Honors: Class Day Usher (3); Junior Dramatic Club; School Department Office Force; Secretary Photo-Play Club (4); Senior Dramatic Club (4); Royal Gold Pin; C. T. Certificate; L. C. Smith Bronze Pin; 150th Anniversary; O. G. A. Award; Remington Silver Pin; Remington Certificate of Proficiency; Royal Certificate of Proficiency; Underwood Bronze Pin; 60 Word Transcription Test; Underwood Silver Pin; Oread Board (4).

GRUE, LORETTA — 25 Lafountain St.
"Loretta" — Commercial

"Be to her virtues very kind
Be to her faults a little blind."

Loretta is a small member of our class, but size doesn't matter, does it, Loretta? We shouldn't believe everything we hear, for names are often misleading. Loretta Grue, but she didn't grow much. By the context of her thrilling stories in the Register we would surmise that she will become an author.

Honors: Circus (2); Dramatic Club (4); T. T. Certificate (4); Photo-Play Club (4).

HALL, MERRITT — 417 Shelburne, Rd.
"Merritt" — General

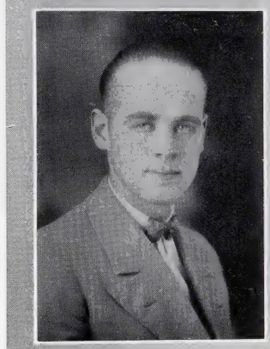
"I'm quiet in all languages."

One of the men from the great outdoors. His quietness and good nature show us his good-will and all-around good sportsmanship. He is a credit to B. H. S. and Isle La Motte, and is bound to succeed. His fine work on the class baseball teams gave us second place last year and he well deserved the "Merritt" he received.

Honors: Circus (1); Class Baseball (2), (3), Captain (3).



HALL, STANLEY M. — 100 N. Winooski Ave.
"Stan" — General

"He was the mildest mannered man."

If "Stan" had to run to get to school on time he'd surely be conspicuous by his absence. "Stan" claims he is envious of no man—except A. N. Palmer. It's all right, "Stan," you know what you're saying even if Miss Isham doesn't.

HALLOCK, ELWIN — 133 King St.
"Hal" — General

"He holds silence by the tails; will he never let loose?"

Elwin is a man of few words, but is an excellent listener and always can tell a hunting or fishing story that is well worth listening to. Elwin is an excellent student and we surely hope he will take advantage of his ability.

Honors: Dramatic Club (3), (4); Miss Henderson's Office Force (4); Circus (1); Award of Proficiency on Remington Typewriter; Award of Proficiency on Underwood Typewriter.

HALLOCK, OLGA — 8 Pearl St.
"Bob" — Commercial

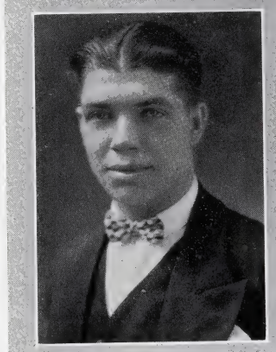
"A merry heart doeth good like medicine."

"Bob" is quite a girl, star guard on our class basketball team for the past three years, only to be lost to the varsity this year, much to our disappointment. Although Olga is a star athlete she finds time for study and really is a brilliant student. Perhaps some of us should profit by her example.

Honors: Class Basketball (1), (2), (3); Varsity (4); Ciass Day Usher (3); Dramatic Club (3), (4); Circus (1); Underwood Certificate of Proficiency; Remington Primary Award; Field Day (1); Miss Henderson's Office Force (4); All-league Team.



HARDY, MARVIN H. — 65 North St.
"Hardy," "Marion" — General

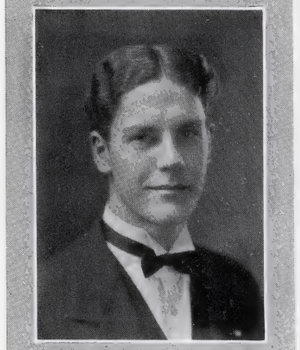
"One that excels the quickest of emblazoning pens."

His is a well-known figure in basketball circles, and he is respected as our heaviest hitter on the diamond. Although athletics occupy most of his time, he always has a word and a smile for the rest of us. We hope you score as many points after you leave us, Hardy, as you have during your four years here.

Honors: Basketball (2), (3), (4); Baseball (1), (2), (3), (4); Class Basketball (1); Coach of Junior Girls (3); Coach of Senior Girls (4); Art Club (4).



HAYWARD, ARTHUR PAUL — 83 Pine St.
"Art" — General Course

"Hence loathed melancholy."

Meet "Art," gentleman, student and athlete of sorts. "Art" is also a "Lady Killer" of no mean ability and we hear that his soft voice and "Crulle Lockes" (shades of chance!) have made a hit at "ye Mary Fletcher." "Art" travels with the boys occasionally and is acclaimed a "Good Sport." We're with you "Art".

Honors: Oread Board (4); Advisory Board (4); Commencement Usher (3); Varsity Baseball (3), (4); Varsity Football (4); Photo-Play Club (4).

HOAG, RUTH A. — 44 Pine St.
"Rufus" — College Preparatory

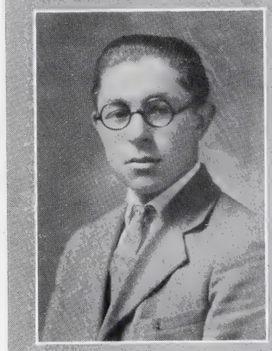
"Good and true and jolly too."

There is a saying, isn't there, that all the greatest gifts come in the smallest packages? Anyone who knows "Ruthie" realizes that this statement is O. K. Whatever she attempts she makes a big success of it. She has been a loyal supporter of the basketball team for two years now.

Honors: Dramatic Club (3), (4); Class Basketball (3), (4); French Club (3), (4); Treasurer Debating Club (4); Prize Speaking (4).



JARVIS, JOHN — Shelburne Rd.
"Jack" — Commercial

"His seeds of knowledge will not grow up to weeds."

He impresses us as an all-around good sport and worker as his high marks show. John comes from the South and brings with him a good nature, and he is a hustler if there ever was one. Lately "Jack" has turned into a mighty "sheik" and is now taking in all our dances and activities.

Honors: Miss Henderson's Office Force (4); Primary Certificate on Remington Typewriter; Circus (1); Senior Dramatic Club; O. G. A.

JENNISON, KENNETH — 12 Bradley St.
"Kenneth" — Commercial

"Very shy indeed."

A rising business man of B. H. S. Is business good, Kenneth? How is the stock market today? Questions like these will be asked of the owner of a line of grocery stores some day, eh what, Kenneth? Although Kenneth does not participate in athletics we know he's a "swell" student.

JORDAN, WALLACE — 317 North St.
"Dimples," "Wally" — General

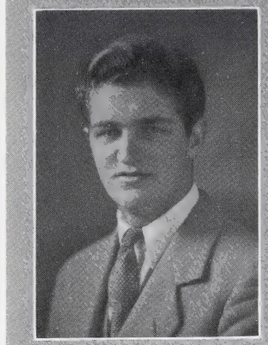
"A man of iron."

Have you ever heard of a terrific banging and squeaking in the vicinity of old Edmunds? No, the school isn't falling down; it's just "Dimples" arriving in his flivver. He is equally at home on the track or gridiron, but at the sight of a bobbed head his courage fails him. What's the matter, "Dimples"?

Honors: Football (3), (4); Track (2), (3), (4); Circus (2); Field Day (1); Class Basketball (4); Oread Stunt Nite (4); Photo-Play Club (4).



JOSSELYN, DONALD — South Hero
"Don" — General

"'Tis but a man—this demi-god."

One of our most popular boys is "Don." The girls just can't keep away from that nice blonde, wavy hair. It dazzles everyone. We think you are aspiring to be a "sheik." Well, you may, if you are not already! You, you know, are the daring hero! Go through life as you have through the football line, "Don."

Honors: Dramatic Club (3), (4); Oread Stunt Nite (3), (4); Class Tax Collector (3); Football (4); Photo-Play Club (4).

KING, PHILIPPS — 206 King St.
"Phil," "King" — Technical

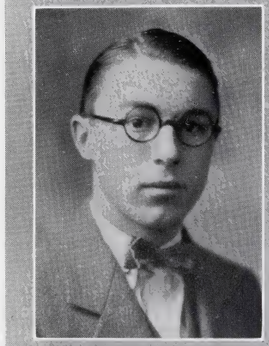
"Beware the fury of a patient man."

Although "Phil" aspires to Caruso's crown, to the sorrow of his classmates, still his never-failing good nature has proved him a king indeed. His feats upon the cinder path have brought groans to the lips of his rivals. In spite of the none too casual glances cast in his direction, "Phil" remains a confirmed bachelor. We know you'll run a good race, "Phil."

Honors: Football Manager (4); Track (3), (4); Freshman Reception; French Club Cabaret (3); Spanish Club (2); Circus (1); Oread Stunt Nite (4).



LAWRENCE, DONALD — 60 George St.
"Don" — General

"What would we do without your kind?"

"Don" is one of the many class farmers, although he does not act at all rural in his studies or elsewhere. "Don" knows his stuff in his class work, and can always answer any questions that are put to him. If "Don" keeps going along like this in life we shall be more than proud to crown him for a son of "Old Edmunds."

Honors: Class Baseball (2); Field Day (1); Circus (1); Photo-Play Club (4).

LEVIN, GERTRUDE R. — 205 N. Willard St.
"Gert," "Trudy" — College Preparatory

"Her smile is like a summer."

This young maiden pictured here with smile so broad is a happy combination of spice and sweetness—not too much of either, of course. Therein lies the point. She suits us fine.

Honors: Debating Club (3), (4); Dramatic Club (3), (4); Music Club (2), (3); Class Day Chorus; Commencement Chorus; Circus; Freshman Reception Stunt; Photo-Play Club (4); Prize Speaking (4).

LEVIN, MARTHA — 28 Wilson St.
"Marty" — Commercial

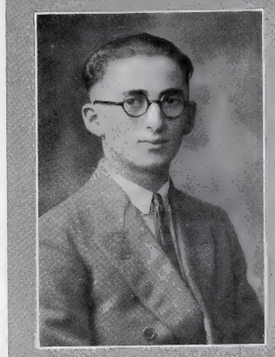
"The pink of perfection."

"Marty" is one of the "snappy dressers" of B. H. S. and we think that some day she will journey far away to be a model in the Paris fashion shows. Although "Marty" has been with us only two years she has won her way into our midst, and we are pleased to claim her as one of our classmates and friends.

Honors: Junior Dramatic Club; Senior Dramatic Club; French Club; Remington Certificate; Underwood Certificate.



LIKOSKY, ABRAHAM — 219 N. Winooski Ave.
"Red" — Commercial

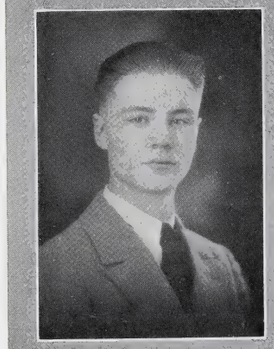
"He speaks an infinite deal of nothing."

"Red," do you talk so much because you have joined the Debating Club or do you mean it? All the same, "Red," you have shown some remarkable improvement in your work and we hope you keep it up.

Honors: Miss Henderson's Office Force; Underwood Initial Certificate (4); Remington Primary Certificate (4); Field Day; Circus (1); 150th Anniversary; Debating Club (3), (4); Class Debating Team; Dramatic Club (3), (4).



LISMAN, LOUIS — 158 N. Willard St.
"Louis" — College Preparatory

"Intent he seems,
And pondering future things of wondrous weight."

Louis is one of the shining scholastic lights of our class, the kind that never worries about his next report card. Having been busy keeping his marks far above par, he has not done much in athletics, but we surely do not hold that against him. Whenever this boy simply talks or debates pearls of wisdom slide glibly from his mouth. Louis cannot help but succeed.

Honors: Debating Team (3), (4), Secretary and Manager (3), President (4); Debating Club Committee (3), (4); Dramatic Club (3), (4); French Club (2), (3); Register Board (4); Varsity Debating Team (3), (4); Boy Mayor (2); Harvard Book Prize (3); Commencement Usher (3); Class Motto Committee (4); Prize Speaking (4).

LOUDON, THOMAS D. — 254 S. Union St.
"Tom" — College Preparatory

"Sleep is the sweetest thing in life."

Behold the well-known and illustrious face of our class president. "Tom" is very popular with his classmates and is well fitted to lead them out into the world. We know he will be a big success and we wish him luck.

Honors: Baseball (2), (3), (4); Football (4); Basketball (4); Toastmaster Junior Banquet; Junior Banquet Speaker; Class President (4); Advisory Board (3); Oread Stunt Nite (3), (4); Class Basketball (2), (3); Dramatic Club (3), (4); Field Day (1); Class Champions (3); All-league Team (3), Captain (3); Register Board (4).

LOUDON, WILLIAM M. — 153 S. Union St.
"Bill" — College Preparatory

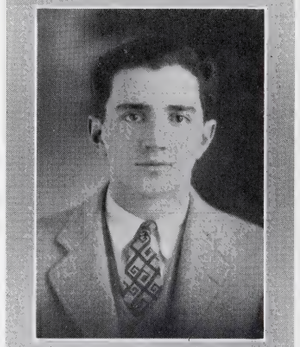
"One may smile and smile and be a villain."

Behold the sophisticate of the class of '27. From his lofty pinnacle he surveys the lowly mortals, while the haughtiest themselves tremble at his frown and revel in his smile. This lordly cynic often steps down to mingle with the rest, and the result is the companionship of one of the best of all-'round good fellows. It is "Bill" who provides that deep bass that one hears when the famous quartet favors us. "Bill" is an important addition to our track team and gains many a point for B. H. S. May he continue his triumphant rule through all the years to follow.

Honors: Track (3), (4); Oread Stunt Night (4); Circus; Dramatic Club (3), (4); French Club (4); Oread Board (4).



LAUZON, MILDRED — 110 N. Union St.
"Milly" — General

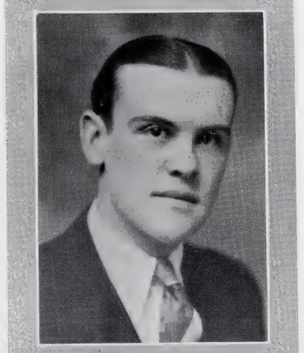
"A maiden modest, yet self-possessed."

Very, very quiet indeed is "Milly." We think, too quiet. Yet do not still waters run deep? Never you mind, for you have made up for your serenity by being at the games and by being a good loyal student.

Honors: Art Club (4); Class Day Usher (3); Oread Stunt Nite (3); Dramatic Club (3); First Prize Abernethy's Clothing Contest (3); Prize of National State Clothing Contest (3); Photo-Play Club (4).



LUCK, EUGENE H. 198 N. Union St.
"Gene" College Preparatory

"I will speak daggers to her, but use none."

Chemistry has suddenly become "Gene's" long suit. He is following the footsteps of his famous predecessors with a vengeance. "Gene" is continually looking on the right side of life, incidentally of Pearl Street (?).

Honors: French Club (2), (3), (4); Dramatic Club (3), (4); Commencement Usher (3); OREAD Stunt Nite (4); French Cabaret Committee (3); Senior Dance Committee (3); Charity Committee (4); Photo-Play Club (4).

MACDONALD, RUTH M. 56 N. Champlain St.
"Ruth," "Cookie" Commercial

"Arise with the lark but avoid larks in the evening."

The man who gets you as his typist certainly will be lucky. One would never think this girl would have such a desire for "Parsons." We have often wondered if you are descended from the English when it comes to wit and humor, for you always laugh long.

Honors: Underwood Bronze Medal; Junior O. A. T. Certificate (4); Dramatic Club (4); Art Club (2); Civics (1); Transcription Test Certificate.

MARTIN, LORRAINE K. 203 King St.
"Punky" College Preparatory

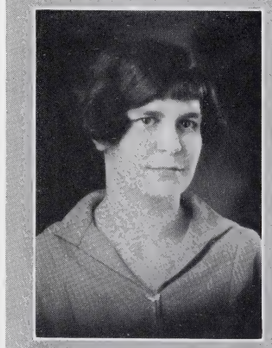
"The lass of fashion."

Here's one person old B. H. S. just couldn't get along without. "Punky" is always full of pep and is forever showing up in a new dress. She has great literary aspirations. We all wish our "Punky" luck.

Honors: Editor-in-Chief Free Press Board (4); OREAD Board (4); Dramatic Club (3), (4); French Club (3), (4); OREAD Stunt Nite (3), (4); French Club Carnival Committee (4); Photo-Play Club (4).



MANOR, ROSELENE H. Charlotte
"Roselene" College Preparatory

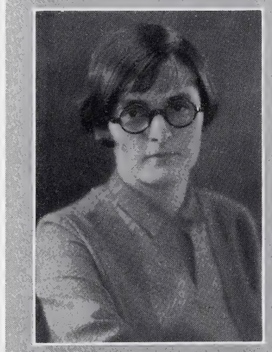
"You may believe that I know well what I am about."

It won't be mean
To Roselene
To call her "grind";
They're hard to find
With her fine mind.



MORCOMBE, HATTIE 468 North Ave.
"Jack" Commercial

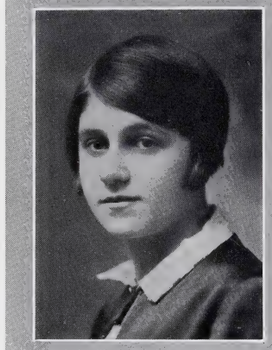
We have not heard much from Hattie for the past year or so but we can all see she has returned to support her basketball team this year. Hattie is outwardly quiet but she may be fooling us—who knows?

Honors: Class Basketball (1), (2), (4); Art Club (1), (2); Senior Dramatic Club (4); Remington Primary Award; Certificate of Proficiency on Underwood.



MORRIS, ROSE 49 First St.
"Rosie" Commercial

"Still waters run deep."

Although she does not attract attention to herself in study hall or class, we know by her presence that Rose is not as quiet as she seems, for she comes to all our dances and social functions. She is also a true and loyal supporter of old Edmunds when it comes to athletics. We wish there might be more like you at Edmunds, and in the rest of the world, Rose.

Honors: Music Club (2); Physical Culture Exhibition (1); Commencement Exercises (2); Class Day Exercises (2); Junior Dramatic Club; Senior Dramatic Club; Art Club.

MOTT, MARGARET — 143 Main St.
"Marge" — Commercial

"As she learneth Chy-no-eth."

"Marge" has acquired such speed and accuracy on the typewriter that she is nearly at the head of her class, and she is one of Miss Henderson's right hand women. She surely finishes everything she starts out to do. She will make some business house a good secretary if someone else does not interfere. Rumor is a dreadful thing—what?

Honors: Music Club; Commencement Chorus; Class Day Chorus; Royal Gold Pin; Remington Silver Pin; Miss Henderson's Office Force (4); Competent Typist Certificate; Junior O. A. T. Certificate; Dramatic Club (4); Commercial Board (4); Register Board (4); Underwood Bronze Medal; Underwood Silver Medal; Photo-Play Club (4).

MOWER, MARGARET E. — 204 S. Willard St.
Peggy — College Preparatory

"A school that boasts scholars like me
Will never lack of brilliancy."

"Peg" is the kind that is always on hand at all school activities and yet keeps her good marks. Her themes, exams and recitations prove that excellence reigns within as well as without. "Peg" has been one of the foremost leaders of our class for four years and we're proud to claim her.

Honors: Editor-in-Chief Oread; Register Board (4); Class Vice-President (2); Boosters' Club (4); Dramatic Club (3), (4); Class Basketball (4); Class Treasurer (3); Junior Banquet Speaker; Junior Banquet Committee; Class Day Usher (3); Mothers' Club Carnival; Secretary Debating Club; French Club Cabaret; Oread Stunt Nite (4).

MUIR, EDNA — 49 Walnut St.
"Ed" — General Course

"If to Her share some female errors fall,
Look on her face and you'll forget them all."

"Ed's" pal graduated last year but realizing that B. H. S. is'nt such a bad place after all, "Ed" has decided to stay awhile. We really don't know "Ed" so very well but she seems quiet enough. Alas! Looks are often deceiving and we know she is just bubbling over with fun and good humor.
"Ed" is also one of the pillars of the chorus.

Honors: Final Penmanship Certificate; Circus (1); Music Club (2); Art Club (2); Chorus (1), (2), (3), (4).

MURPHY, GLADYS — 538 S. Union St.
"Red" — Commercial

"Her red top makes her known everywhere."

Here is a wee member of our class who is not so small during school hours. Gladys is always jolly and pleasant; we may say that big things come in small packages. What would we do without her cheerful smile about the school? "Glad" almost always has her lessons and that is something some of us can't say.

Honors: Miss Henderson's Office Force; Bronze Medal on the Underwood; Silver Pin on Remington; 60-Word Transcription Test; Royal Certificate; Underwood Certificate; Remington Certificate; French Club (2); Dramatic Club (3), (4); Photo-Play Club (4); 150th Anniversary; Oread Board (4).

MYETTE, DOROTHY E. — 27 Isham St.
"Dot" — College Preparatory

"A shy little miss."

"Dot" has not associated with us very much during her four years in B. H. S., most of her time being spent on her studies and her marks surely show it. Although we do not know her very well we know that she is a good sport and we wish her good luck during the future years.

Honors: Music Club (1), (2), (3); Commencement Chorus; Class Day Chorus (1), (2).

NORMAN, PEARL — 69 Chase St.
"Tricky," "Poil" — Commercial

"I come and go, but am not slow."

Pearl is another of our jazz devotees. She can play jazz and keep time to it as we can all see by her popularity on the dance floor. "Tricky" is a loyal student and goes to all the athletic activities. We shall remember Pearl as the outstanding Viennese girl in the chorus of "Pickles."

Honors: Dramatic Club (3), (4); Art Club (4); Music Club; Miss Henderson's Office Force (4); Circus (1); Commencement Chorus (2); Class Day Chorus; Mothers' Club Vaudeville; 150th Anniversary; Primary Certificate on Remington Typewriter; Certificate of Proficiency on Royal Typewriter; Oread Stunt Nite (4); Photo-Play Club (4); Gregg Transcription Test; Bronze Pin on Underwood; Silver Pin on Remington; Art Club Entertainment Committee.

O'NEILL HELEN — 22 Converse Ct.
"Helen" — College Preparatory

"A tempest in a teapot."

We believe that Helen's ancestors must have hailed from Missouri since her motto seems to be, "I gotta be shown." You have the makings of an actress, for you, too, are temperamental. That must be why you succeeded in "Pickles," that "spicy" show!

Honors: Oread Stunt Night (3), (4); French Club (3), (4); Dramatic Club (3), (4); Photo-Play Club (4).

OWEN, WREATHA — 63 King St.
"Wreatha" — Commercial

"And, also, could you look a little Modest,'twould be convenient."

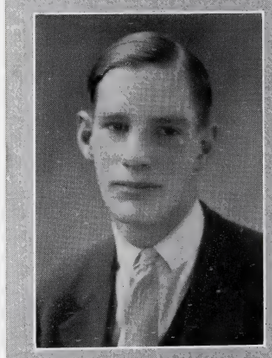
We have among us a shining light, we look and we see the light reflecting from a head of gold. Then we look again and see her ever-constant companion. Thus we recognize the "partners" of the commercial world.

Honors: Palmer Method Certificate (1); Circus (1); Dramatic Club (4); Photo-Play Club (4); T. T. Certificate (4).



PARKS, ALCOTT — 25 Booth St.
"Shorty" — General

"Yon Cassius has a lean and hungry look."

When "Shorty" came gaily tripping on the stage during "Pickles" the audience couldn't see his head because it was lost among the scenery! Nevertheless "Shorty" was a great addition to our show. Can you imagine this saintly (?) member of the Hi-Y Club playing cards and matching pennies?

Honors: Circus (1); Chorus (2), (4); Music Club (3); Freshman Reception Stunt (3); Commencement Usher (3); Oread Stunt Nite (3), (4); Dramatic Club (3), (4); Daily News Board (4); Register Board (4); Photo-Play Club (4).

PERELMAN, JULIUS S. — 358 N. Winooski Ave.
"Julius" — General

"Breathes there a man with top-knot so dazzling?"

Julius believes that anything is possible and acts accordingly. His smooth appearance is oft viewed with suspicion by strangers as if he were a society crook or something akin, but to our knowledge he has never committed a crime, unless the A's he pulls are so considered.

Honors: Oread Board (4); Dramatic Club (3), (4); Junior Debating Team (3); Track Team (3), (4); French Club (4); Junior Banquet Committee; Photo-Play Club (4); Prize Speaking (4).

PERELMAN, SARAH — 22 Decatur St.
"Sal" — Commercial

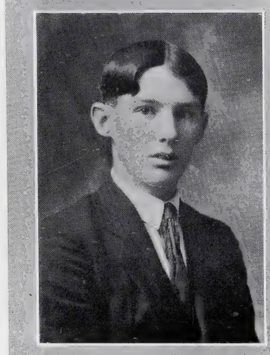
"Friends she has many, enemies not any."

"Sal" is very good in the way of school spirit, studies and athletics. She has a smile that would win anyone's heart and she uses it most of the time (on the opposite sex). How about it, "Sal"? "Sally" is also a member of the Senior class basketball team and deserves credit for her work. It has been excellent.

Honors: Circus (1); 150th Anniversary Pageant; Lafayette Pageant; Art Club (3); Dramatic Club (3), (4); Miss Henderson's Office Force (4); Debating Club (4); Certificate of Proficiency on Remington; Class Basketball (4); Photo-Play Club (4).



PILLSBURY, ALGERNON — Williston
"Al" — Technical

"A moral, sensible and well-bred man."

"Al" is a quiet lad, perhaps because he is forced to ride a long distance to school every day. He has been a member of the football squad for two years and if he tries as hard when he gets out into the world as he does on the gridiron we know that he will "go over big."

Honors: Football (3), (4); Dramatic Club (4).

PILLSBURY, CHARLES — Williston
"Charlie" — College Preparatory

"There's a man."

A man indeed! He even plays football. Comes in every day to school from Williston, ten miles away. How he does it we do not know, because he has a Ford. A man who can do that has great things in store for him.

Honors: Football (3), (4); Track (4); Dramatic Club (3), (4); Photo-Play Club (4).

PUTNAM, MAILLA — 5 Chase Lane
"Mailla" — General

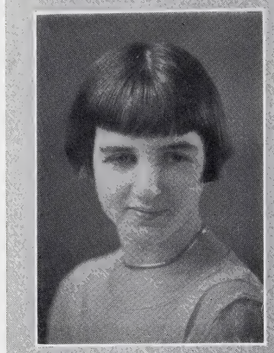
"She cried for cakes and lollipops
And played with dolls and humming tops."

Did you ever see Mailla without a bag in her hand and a huge lump in her cheek? One very seldom finds a girl with an ambition to do things but we have one. She is the Paderewski, Schumann-Heink and Rembrandt of our class.

Honors: French Club (3), (4); Dramatic Club (3), (4); Art Club (3), (4); Debating Club (4); Circus (1); Class Day Usher (3); Oread Stunt Nite (4); Photo-Play Club (4).



READY, CECELIA — 212 St. Paul St.
"Ceil" — Commercial

"No noise is complete unless I am there."

Cecelia is one of the girl athletes in the Senior class and has been a shining light on the basketball court for two years. She is surely following her sister's footsteps and is carrying the family colors "home with the bacon." The third floor would miss your "chatter" if you were absent a whole minute, Cecelia.

Honors: Class Basketball (2), (3), (4); Class Day Usher (3); Miss Henderson's Office Force (4); Remington Primary Award; Field Day; Mothers' Club Vaudeville; Dramatic Club (3), (4); Certificate of Proficiency on Royal; Certificate of Proficiency on Underwood.

REED, WILLIAM I. — 361 S. Union St.
"Sub," "Hinky" — College Preparatory

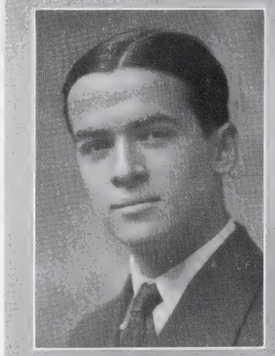
"Tall and fair he stood."

We cannot imagine how you received such a nickname when your hair is so light. The girls certainly do sigh when they see such combination of light hair, blushes and height. We feel honored, Inman, that you came from the Far South and joined us our Senior year.

Honors: Dramatic Club (4); Photo-Play Club (4); Oread Stunt Nite (4).



RICH, EDGAR — 75 Hyde St.
"Ed" — Commercial

"By the work one knows the workman."

"Ed" is that quick, reliable fellow who has been decorating the rooms (not the corridors) of B. H. S. for the past four years. "Ed's" place on the Honor Roll is reserved ahead of time, and it cannot be said of him that he is the schoolboy that treads slowly as a snail to school, because he surely earned his little letter in track. We shall miss his quiet ways when he leaves "Old Edmunds."

Honors: Class Basketball (1), (2), (3); Penmanship; Track (3); Certificate of Proficiency on Remington; Certificate of Proficiency on Underwood; Miss Henderson's Office Force (4); Oread Stunt Nite (4).

ROSENTHAL, BETTY — 82 Loomis St.
"Betty" — Commercial

"Tempting, delicious, delightful."

Very unlike this picture, "Bee" is rarely seen without a mischievous twinkle in her eyes. From what's to be seen and heard, she is closely following in the footsteps of the celebrated Edna Murray, and doesn't Betty have a difficult time convincing them that it is the schoolgirl complexion? Betty is one good sport and we are proud to claim her as a member of our class.

Honors: Remington Primary Certificate; Commencement Chorus (2); Class Day Chorus; Orchestra Concert (2); Spanish Club (2), (3); Music Club (2); Art Club (4); Dramatic Club (4).

SAFFORD, FREDERICK W. 442 North St.
"Freddie" General

"Blessings on thee, little man."

Although you are not as big as "Frederick the Great" we think you have more brains. Your head is as large as anybody's and even Napoleon was not any too tall. We hope that you will become editor of the World in the near future.

Honors: Circus (1); Field Day; 150th Anniversary Pageant; Dramatic Club (4).

SAIGER, SOPHIA G. 55 Henry St.
"Fia" College Preparatory

"And still they gazed and still the wonder grew,
That one small head could carry all she knew."

Behold the class fish! In other words, math shark. "Freddie's" tired and discouraged eyes open and show signs of encouragement when she has the floor. Sophia is able to say without a guilty conscience, "My studies interest me so, that I have never fallen asleep in any class." Besides being a good student she is a good athlete, and has practically won the games for the Senior basketball team.

Honors: Class Basketball (1), (2), (3), (4), Captain (2); Dramatic Club (3), (4); French Club (2), (3), (4); Class Day Usher (3); All-League Team (1), (2); Debating Club (3), (4); String Club (1); Circus (1); Classical Course Prize (2); Prize Speaking (4).

ST. PETER, MARTHA South Burlington
"Mart" Commercial

"'Tis well to be merry and wise."

Martha is no relation to the St. Peter we read about, but she is too good for many of the ever-growing throng that pass by her hiding place. She is a quiet little maid who, when she is aroused, will spring a rich joke that cannot be turned on her. In other words, she is a jolly, noisy girl of the South who knows her stuff and can tell it.

Honors: Miss Henderson's Office Force (4); Art Club; Dramatic Club (3), (4); Junior O. A. T.

SAXTON, HELEN W. Cambridge
"Helen," "Tillie" Commercial

"Sober, steadfast and demure."

You do not say much, Helen, which is a virtue in itself, but when you do, you speak wisdom. We expect to hear you speak for yourself some day. From her certificates of proficiency we know that "Tillie" must be proficiency personified.

Honors: Dramatic Club (4); Remington Certificate of Proficiency (4); Underwood Certificate of Proficiency (4).

SEAVER, REBECCA R. 240 Loomis St.
"Becky" College Preparatory

"It is not good that man should be alone."

When anyone meets "Bec" he understands why "gentlemen prefer blondes." "Bec" must be a descendant of the vigilantes, for she seems to have a great liking for (Lynch)ing. "Bec" is one of the brightest students and one of the champion joke tellers of our class.

Honors: French Club (3), (4); Dramatic Club (3), (4); Oread Stunt Nite (2), (3), (4); Class Treasurer (2), (4); O. G. A. Certificate; Junior Banquet Committee; Class Day Usher; French Club Cabaret.

SCHMELTZER, ANNA 72 King St.
"Ann" Commercial

"There was none like her, though there were many imitations."

Does not our "Ann" look like an oriental maid in this picture, but no she is Burlington's native daughter although her summers are spent at Lake Placid—the reason is obvious, for did not "Ann" "cop" those dance prizes and Charleston prizes out there, which rightfully she did deserve. "Ann" is a fine student and we feel sure her life will be one great success.

Honors: Dramatic Club (3), (4); Class Day Chorus (2); Orchestra Concert (2); Music Club (2); Spanish Club (2), (3); Miss Henderson's Office Force; Certificate of Proficiency on Underwood Typewriter; Certificate of Proficiency on Remington Typewriter; Junior O. A. T.; Remington Silver Pin; Underwood Bronze Medal.

SCHMELTZER, MORRIS — 72 King St.
"Schmeltie" — General Course"

"A gentleman and a scholar."

"Schmeltie" is one of our all around good sports having played class basketball for four years and loyally supported all three varsity sports. Morris has the air of a man of the world and although he is quiet, we know he accomplishes considerable as his report card shows.

Honors: Class Basketball (1), (2), (3), (4); Field Day; Freshman Reception; Dramatic Club (4); Circus (1).

SMITH, HARRIET M. — 285 S. Winooski Ave.
"Harriet" — College Preparatory

"A daughter of the gods,
Divinely tall, and most divinely fair."

Behold the girl with the most educated "pair of boots" in the Senior class. We have often wondered if she wouldn't turn out to be a nurse, but we have decided that the terpsichorean art fits her much better, although she feigns a deep interest in the medical profession.

Honors: Oread Stunt Nite (3); Free Press Board; French Club Carnival; Circus (1); Mothers' Club Benefit; Orchestra Concert (3); Dramatic Club (4).

STERNS, RACHEL — 66 First St.
"Rae" — Commercial

"Music hath its charms and so hath 'Rae'."

"Rae" is an excellent student and one of the best private secretaries that ever graced the commercial course. But there is another side to her sunny nature: She is a dance enthusiast and she may be seen at all the high school dances. "Rae" is just wild about automobile riding and one of these days we expect to see her driving her own roadster.

Honors: Commencement Chorus (2); Class Day Chorus (2); Spanish Club (2); Dramatic Club (3), (4); Miss Henderson's Office Force; Register Board (4); Underwood Silver Pin; Remington Silver Pin; Royal Gold Pin; C. T. Certificate; L. C. Smith Certificate of Proficiency; Remington Gold Pin; Gregg Transcription Test Award; Music Club.

SWIFT, ELIJAH — 415 S. Willard St.
"Pete" — College Preparatory

"He's armed without that's innocent within."

"Pete" has rather an angelic appearance upon first sight, but when you get to know him you sometimes wonder whether Duncan was not right when he said, "There's no art to find the mind's construction in the face." "Pete" doesn't live up to his name much to the disappointment of many girls.

Honors: Orchestra (4); Band (4); Circus; Oread Stunt Nite (4); Dramatic Club (3), (4); French Club (3), (4), Treasurer (4); Civic Club, Treasurer; Photo-Play Club (4).

SWINYER, DAISY M. — 4 Loomis St.
"Dais" — General

"To draw true beauty shows a master hand."

Daisy is not very well known in our class. Her motto is "Work first and then play." The latter must be excluded for we never see Daisy except during school hours. She cannot but help be a success and we wish her the best of luck.

Honors: Dramatic Club (3), (4); Art Club (3), (4).

TAYLOR, DOROTHY M. — Shelburne
"Dot" — General

"Why should life all labor be?"

Behold this demure little girl who emerged from the wilds of Shelburne four years ago and enrolled in B. H. S. During these years she has made us realize that Shelburne isn't such a "hick town" after all. We think she intends to settle down in Charlotte after she graduates. How about it, "Dot"?

Honors: French Club (3), (4); Dramatic Club (3), (4); Art Club (4); Class Day Usher (3); Commencement Chorus (2).

TINDALL, ARTHUR — 393 Shelburne Rd.
"Art," "Red" — General

"The light that never fails."

That red head seems to be the only permanent thing about Old Edmunds since the recent renovation. We all feel sure, however, that his colorful locks will always serve to remind us of the old days. "Art" has taken a more lively interest in school affairs during his fourth year, and is now holding down a responsible position on the Oread Board. Congratulations, "Red."

Honors: Oread Board (4); Junior Dramatic Club; Senior Dramatic Club; Circus (1); Class Baseball (2), (3), (4), Manager (3); Class Basketball (2), (3); Field Day; Physical Culture Exhibition; Oread Stunt Nite (4); Photo-Play Club (4).

TOWNE, ELIZABETH S. — 16 S. Willard St.
"Townie," "Chewnie" — General

"Little I dream of care as through life I go."

"Townie" is our "Jumping-Jack," always on the jump. But the difference between "Townie" and the ordinary "jumping-jack is that every jump that "Townie" makes she accomplishes something. Her success on the basketball court proves that. We hope she will jump through life as she has through high school.

Honors: All-league Team (3); Class Basketball (1), (3), (4), Captain (4); Dramatic Club (3), (4); Oread Stunt Nite (3); Oread Board (4); Circus (1); Photo-Play Club (4); Field Day (1).

TOWNE, MARJORIE — 149 N. Union St.
"Townie," "Marnie" — Commercial

"You tempt me with your laughing eyes."

"Marnie's" hands seem destined to be her fortune, for she surely can "tickle the ivories" both on the typewriter and the Baby Grand. We wouldn't be at all surprised at the next issue of Victor's popular piano duet records to see thereon the honored names of Towne and Murray.

Honors: Oread Stunt Nite (4); Circus (1); Dramatic Club (3), (4).

TOWNE, RAYMOND D. — 149 N. Union St.
"Ray," "Townie" — General

"You may relish him more in the soldier than in the scholar."

Experience is the best teacher, and we have no doubt that "Townie's" education will be complete by June. And in truth, his activities on the gridiron merit distinction. Keep up the good work, "Ray," we're all rooting for you.

Honors: Football (3), (4); Class Basketball (3), (4).

TUBBS, VIRGINIA — 94 S. Winooski Ave.
"Vir" — General

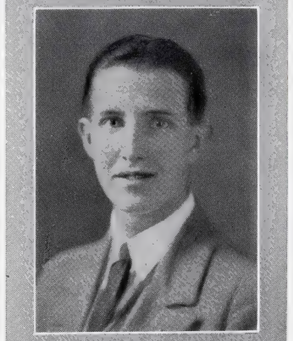
"My little body is aweary of this great world."

Behold! Our girl from the Maine woods, but far from backward. In fact, she puts it all over some of us, so far over that we know not of what she speaks. Keep it up Virginia. If your voice has anything to do with it, you'll get there.

Honors: Oread Stunt Nite (3), (4); Dramatic Club (4); Photo-Play Club (4); Art Club (3), (4).



VON BRUNS, ROBERT — 25 Crombie St.
"Bob" — College Preparatory

"Love me, love my dog."

"Bob's" sure a fine and accommodating fellow and those who know him certainly like him. Last year he was one of the finds of the season in track. "Bob" has a fine sense of school spirit and he certainly uses it. We know we'll hear of "Bob's" success after he has gone out in life.

Honors: Underwood Typewriter Certificate (4); Remington Typewriter Certificate (4); Dramatic Club (4); Circus (1); Track (3); Photo-Play Club (4); Oread Stunt Nite (4).

VONDLE, ELEANOR M. Grand Isle

"Eleanor" College Preparatory

"Woman's place is in the home."

Eleanor is another student in B. H. S. who upholds honors for Grand Isle. She is rather quiet, but she says something worth listening to when she does talk. Her motto is "Children should be seen and not heard" and she surely lives up to it.

Honors: Dramatic Club (3), (4); French Club (2); Photo-Play Club (4).

WEBSTER, TRUMAN S. Shelburne

"True" College Preparatory

"A good domestic man."

Truman came to us from Shelburne. At first he talked but little and was rather reserved, but "them days is gone." Wherever he goes we are sure that he will be successful and we wish him good luck in all his efforts.

Honors: Dramatic Club (4); French Club (3), (4); Oread Board (4); Register Board (3), (4); Commencement Usher (3); Photo-Play Club (4); Oread Stunt Nite (4); Prize Speaking (4).

WELLS, HELEN J. Shelburne

"Jane" General

"She, the silent, dreamy maiden."

This quiet-looking little maiden with her winsome smile is a new example of the saying "Looks are deceiving," for when there is a good time Helen is as noisy as the rest. We are sure that some cavalier will be attracted and won by those dimples, Helen.

Honors: Class Day Chorus (2); Commencement Chorus (2); Photo-Play Club (4); Dramatic Club (3).

WESTON, CLAUDE 66 King St.

"Claude" Commercial

"And he is a jolly good fellow."

Claude is not as quiet as one might suppose. If you could be at the same place at the same time that Claude is when he is feeling good you could not miss a good time. He knows enough jokes and stories to fill the library and then some more.

Honors: Class Baseball; Field Day (1); Circus (1); Initial Certificate on Underwood Typewriter; Primary Certificate on Remington Typewriter.

WESTON, ELEANOR 95 Brookes Ave.

"Eleanor" College Preparatory

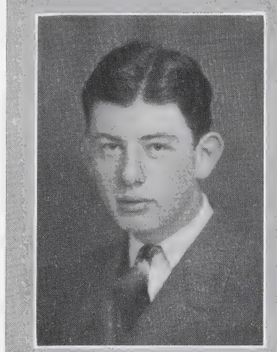
"Don't take school too seriously,
You'll never get out alive."

This exponent of a "school girl's complexion and a skin you love to touch" needs no introduction to the class of '27 or even to the entire high school. Eleanor has a wonderful personality and is bound to succeed.

Honors: French Club (2), (3), (4); Dramatic Club (3), (4); Oread Stunt Nite (3), (4); Vice-President (1); Class Day Usher (3); Junior Banquet Committee; School Ring Committee (2); French Cabaret; Photo-Play Club (4).



WILLIAMS, EDWARD E. Alburgh

"Eddie" College Preparatory

"Hold the fort, I'm coming."

Behold our class "It." "Eddie's" from the country but who would ever think it, especially the girls. He is one of our most brilliant scholars, but when does he study? That is the question. Tell us, "Eddie," how do you spend your week-ends in Alburgh?

Honors: Varsity Football (4); Oread Stunt Nite (3); French Club (3), (4); Circus (1); Class Secretary (3); Photo-Play Club (4); Dramatic Club (4).

WILLIAMS, GRACE — 57 N. Union St.
"Gracious" — Commercial

"Small in body but great in mind."

It took Grace a long time to decide to cut her hair, but after much thought she did. Grace is sure to make good because she is kind, quiet and agreeable, and is possessed of a pleasing personality which will push her ahead. As a student Grace is supreme. You never see her staying after school because of her studies—Oh, my, no!

Honors: Junior Dramatic Club; Senior Dramatic Club; Remington Proficiency Award; Underwood Proficiency Award; 150th Anniversary; Freshman Reception Committee (2); Athletic Banquet Decorating (2); Junior O. A. T. Certificate; Photo-Play Club (4).

WHITTEMORE, MAURICE J. — 12 Henry St.
"Whippet," "Whit" — General

"Bid me play; I will enchant thine ear."

"Whippet" has blossomed into quite an accomplished player of the "sax." He intends to use his ability to win over some member of the fairer sex. Can it be the "A. & P." clerk in Johnson?

Honors: Orchestra; Orchestra Concert; Mothers' Club Affairs; Circus (1); 150th Anniversary; Band; Field Day; Assembly Orchestra.

WOLFE, INA — 156 Intervale Ave.
"Ina" — General

"She may be little but—O my!"

Small? Yes small, but what of that? Ina should know whether there is truth in the statement that "one who is ticklish likes the boys." She is a good student and a loyal one, taking a great interest in dramatics.

Honors: French Club (3); Spanish Club (2), (3); Dramatic Club (3), (4); Photo-Play Club (4).

AGEL, IRVING A. — 81 Main St.
"Bobby" — College Preparatory

"The wonder of a learned age."

We might think that "Bobby" is a college boy when he goes strutting around in his raccoon coat. But in spite of his airs he is an excellent student, especially in French (?). Keep it up, Irving, and you'll ride the waves of life as gracefully as those in your hair.

Honors: Class Basketball (4); Debating Club (3); Class Debating Team (3); French Club (3), (4); Photo-Play Club (4); Dramatic Club (3), (4); Charity Committee.

BRUCE, CEDRIC B. — 20 Isham St.
"Ced" — General Course

"To work is to succeed"

Cedric seemed to be rather uncertain about how soon he wished to leave our dear old High School, but sometime last winter he decided and he has been a real member of '27 ever since. Though quiet (?) in school, he is quite speedy outside, for we often see him "tearing up macadam" in a big "six". "Ced" is undecided about next year. (So are we).

Honors: Orchestra (3), (4); Oread Stunt Nite (4); Football (3), (4); Freshman Reception; Band (4).

JACKSON, JOSEPH ADDISON — 254 S. Union St.
"Ad," "Ajax," "Jay" — College Preparatory

"I dare not write as funny as I look."

"Ad" is one of our varsity basketball players. When he isn't practicing you will be very likely to find him at "25 Orchard Terrace" visiting another basketball star. They say that they discuss the games, but their little tale doesn't satisfy our curiosity. "Ad" has tried out for many of the school sports and has shown his ability as an athlete. We wish you luck, "Ad." You are such a "Ruth"less boy and you are bound to succeed.

Honors: Class Basketball (3); Captain Basketball (4); All-league Team (4); Varsity Baseball (4); Register Board (3), (4); Oread Board (4).

KERSHNER, JACOB — 58 First St.
"Jakie" — Commercial

"Sometimes a violent laughter screwed his face."

"Jakie" is an ambitious (?) fellow, especially up in typewriting. Although he has not indulged in sports, we know he is an excellent dramatist, having taken the thrilling part of husband to one of our fair sex.

Honors: Dramatic Club (4).

SANBORN, IRIS M. — 233 St. Paul St.
"Iris" — General

"Her voice was ever soft,
Gentle and low; an excellent thing in woman."

Iris joined us just a year ago. She is so quiet and retiring we hardly know that she is here. Why not make more noise, Iris?

WARNER, WESLEY F. — 75 Henry St.
"Sleepy," "Flee," "Mose" — General

"Sleepy" is one of our best athletes, having led the best team in years for B. H. S. "Flee" is very popular and has a great variety of nicknames. He is also one of the class sheiks and is a very quiet fellow except when he loses his temper at the girls. "Joe" hopes to be a future B. H. S. coach for basketball. We surely hope he is.

Honors: Varsity Basketball (2), (3), (4), Captain (4); Class Basketball (1), (2); Oread Stunt Nite (2); Class Champions (2); "B" Club; Field Day (1), (2).

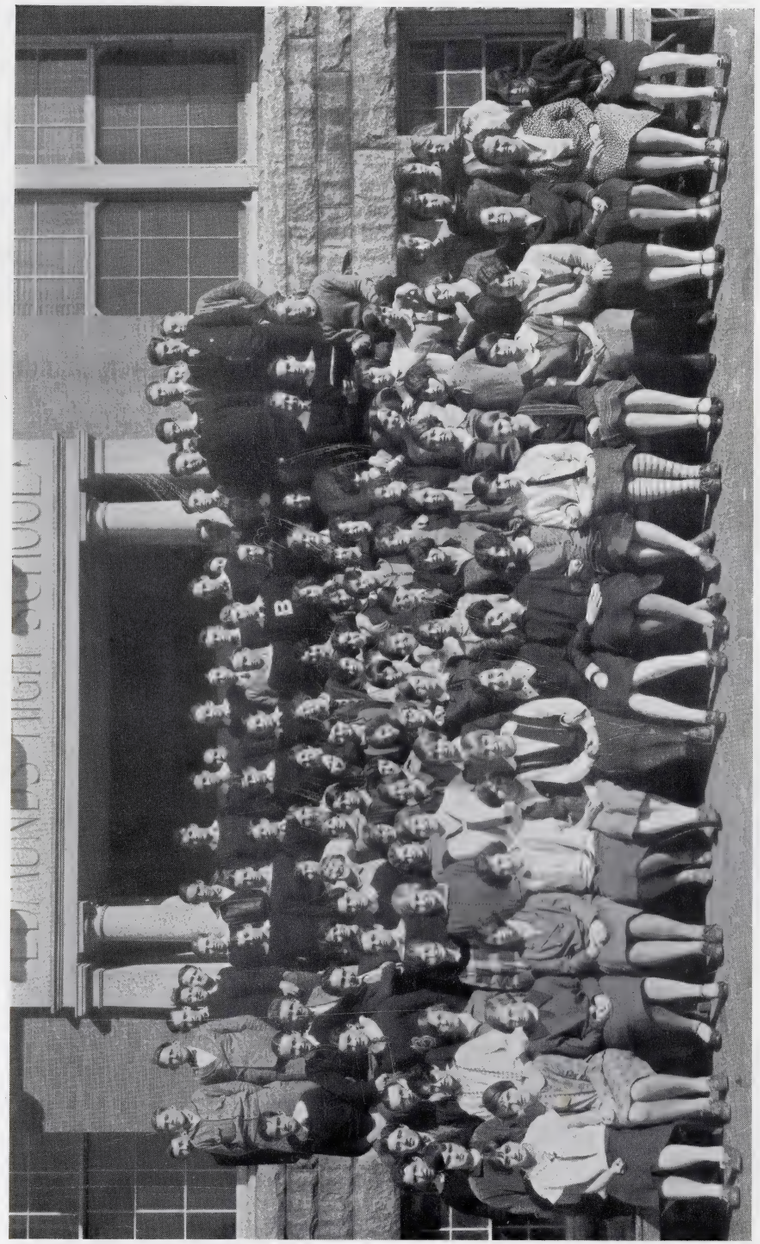
JUNIORS



Junior Editorial

Greetings from the class of 1928! We have completed two years of our sojourn in old Edmunds. This year we have realized what our life in B. H. S. really means to us and how quickly it is passing.

From the time that we were Sophomores we have looked longingly toward the day when we should be Seniors. Next year we shall have earned that coveted and honorable title and we shall have found our longed-for desires fulfilled.

The class has been very active in athletics; we have furnished men for all teams and have supplied a captain for the football and the baseball teams. In the class league the boys have been fairly successful and the girls are the league champions.

The class has been no less active in social affairs. We have given our loyal support to all our school activities. We have several members in the orchestra and in the new B. H. S. band. Nineteen hundred and twenty-eight is well represented on the Register, the Free Press and the Daily News boards. The Register has regular contributors from our class. The Debating, the French, and the Art Clubs have interested and active members from the Junior class.

We may well be proud of our most talented and promising geniuses who have taken leading parts in various Oread Stunt Nite programmes.

Our class has constantly striven to keep our scholastic standing high and in this attempt we have been fairly successful. We wish to thank our teachers for their patience, help and cheerful cooperation with us.

This year the school has been indeed fortunate in securing a new assembly hall and a new gymnasium. We wish to express our thanks to the city of Burlington and to all those concerned in providing these splendid additions to Burlington High. May these prove an inspiration to spur us on to higher achievements, worthy of a new and glorified school building.

We have covered three laps of our race here at old Edmunds successfully, we hope. The last and most difficult lap of all is before us. It is the way in which we run this lap that will determine whether we shall go down in High School history simply as the class of 1928 or whether we shall be remembered as one of the best classes ever graduated from old Edmunds.

Come on '28! Let's put every ounce of energy we have into the race and finish fast!

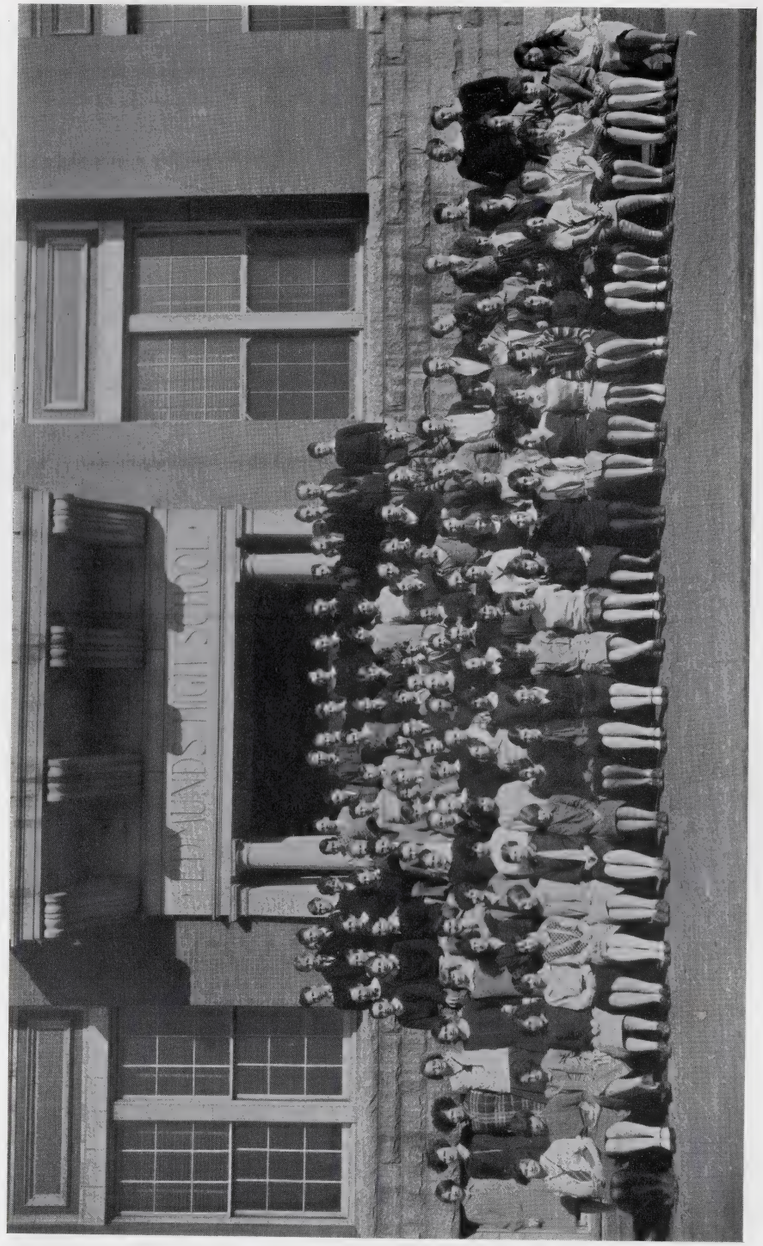
SOPHOMORES



Sophomore Editorial

Last fall we attained the position of noble Sophomores. But were we really Sophomores? We were looked down upon by the upperclassmen as Freshmen, and in addition we were told that the usual reception held for the entering class would be given us. However, it was not long before any suggestion of greenness had worn off.

Soon we became accustomed to our new environment and felt quite at home. We made many acquaintances and grew familiar with the customs of the upper classes.

We, as a class in its first year of Senior High, looked forward to representing B. H. S. in many ways. Our expectations were fulfilled shortly and have been carried out during the year.

This year our class was given an opportunity for the first time to display its ability in football, and as a result we were well represented on the squad.

The number of Sophomores playing in the orchestra is greater than that of any other class.

We have responded well to the appeal of the Debating Club and hope that in the future some of our members will be represented on the varsity team. In regard to basketball, both teams have worked hard and have been successful.

As a class we feel that we have made a successful beginning of our years in Senior High, and have enjoyed this beginning of a new life. We appreciate and value our opportunities and hope that we have helped to enrich and make greater the fame of B. H. S., for is not our school what we make it?

Baseball, 1926

Our baseball team, although not champions, was classed as one of the three best in the State and deserved a better fate. Only three games were lost to high school opponents and two of the teams to come out victorious over the Blue and White were later defeated; these two nines were the ones representing St. Albans and Winooski High Schools. Rutland was the other team to defeat B. H. S. and as only one game was played with them, our diamond artists had no chance to redeem themselves.

Five regulars from the 1925 outfit were on hand this year, including Captain Barrett, Gadue, Preston, Hardy and Rivers. The entire outfield was lost by graduation in 1925, and also the third baseman. However, Coach Hard had a fine number of new men and with a little practice developed them into first-rate ball tossers. He shifted "Joe" Rivers to third base and Marvin Hardy to second in order to make room for "Eddie" Knight, who was a star performer at short. Captain Barrett at the initial sack completed the infield and it turned out to be one of the best combinations to wear the Blue and White for a number of years. "Bobby" Gadue, star southpaw, and Paul Preston, a three-letter man, returned from last season and made up the battery. Gadue pitched eight of the ten games played and with better support might have had a clean slate. "Bobby" was also the star performer of the team with the stick, connecting safely for at least one hit in every game and leading his teammates with an average of .444. The outfield caused Coach Hard the most worry, but finally he had four reliable gardeners upon whom he could depend in Gardner Shufeldt, another three-letter man, "Tommy" Loudon, still another tri-sport star, "Sam" Brown and "Art" Hayward.

After losing the first game of the year to the University of Vermont second team, Burlington wended its way to Montpelier and there set back the Capital City lads by a 5-2 score. Hardy's home run was a feature of the game, while Rivers starred in the field. On May 15, B. H. S. got sweet revenge on Spaulding High for its defeats in football and basketball by scoring a 5-3 victory. Gadue was the star performer for the winners, holding the Red and Blue safely at bay by his brilliant twirling, besides being responsible for three of our runs. Bossi was the big gun for the losers, collecting four hits out of four trips to the platter. This was the first time B. H. S. had won over Spaulding on the diamond since 1922.

The next game was played at Burlington and resulted in a victory for Burlington over Richmond, 9-4. The winners scored all their runs in a spectacular rally in the sixth inning, when the score was 3-0 against them. Loudon starred in the field and at bat for the Blue and White.

With a record of three straight wins, Burlington traveled to Rutland on May 25 and was beaten in a tight game, 4-3. After collecting three runs in the first two innings, B. H. S. fell down in the field and at bat, with the result that Rutland crept up slowly and finally won out in the eighth stanza on a hit by Layden, Rutland twirler. Captain Barrett starred for the losers by banging out two doubles and playing a stellar game in the field. The high wind bothered our outer-gardeners considerably, but the fates seemed to favor the down-staters, as it always died down whenever they took the field.

Burlington next lost two games in a row—to St. Albans at the Railroad City and once more to the U. V. M. Seconds. The latter game was a close contest all the way and B. H. S. gave their older and more experienced opponents a real run for their money, the final score standing 6-3.

Two games were played with Winooski a week after and Burlington defeated their neighbors 6-1 on the Winooski diamond and then returned to Centennial Field to lose 14-7. The victory was made possible by the good hurling of Hardy, who made his first appearance on the mound, and by timely hitting from the bats of Hayward and Barrett. When the Green and White visited us, though, it was a different story; they sailed into Hardy for nineteen hits and took a big lead early in the game. Burlington had a brilliant come-back in the eighth inning by crossing the plate six times, but Winooski's lead was too big and the Blue and White was defeated.

In the last game of the season Burlington took revenge on St. Albans for the defeat handed them earlier in the season and won handily 7-2. The winners scored one run in the second inning, thereby gaining the lead, but the visitors came right back and secured a 2-1 advantage at the end of the seventh inning. Burlington, however, duplicated its stunt of the Winooski game and fell upon the offerings of the St. Albans' hurler for six runs in the eighth inning, sewing up the game. Gadue pitched a good game for B. H. S., while Barrett shone at bat.

Football, 1926

The truth about our disastrous football season of 1926 is that Coach Hard had at the very outset practically no material worth moulding an eleven from. In fact, to be openminded about the whole business, "Buck" had just three men who had seen action in a game before—Rivers, Niles and Pillsbury. Therefore, it may be seen that the task which was set before him must have been discouraging to say the least. And besides lack of material to work with, our mentor was forced to start practice three weeks later than usual because of the late opening of school. Notwithstanding the difficulties which surrounded him, "Buck" set about his work with a will and by dint of long days of hard and vigorous training managed to build up an eleven which was not to be sneezed at. The boys also worked hard and deserve great credit for what they did do.

With his green and inexperienced squad of gridiron warriors, Coach Hard set out for the first game of the year on October 2, when the opponents were Spaulding High at Barre. On that day the Blue and White started their season in a blaze of glory by holding their heavier opponents to a 0-0 tie. Burlington outplayed the Red and White in a surprising manner and only an untimely gust of wind cheated her out of a victory, when "Joe" Rivers' beautiful 38-yard drop-kick on attempt at a field goal was carried enough out of its course to make it hit the cross bar and rebound onto the field. It was a tough game and B. H. S. deserved to win. Niles' spectacular tackling and the ball-carrying of Rivers and Fuller featured for us.

The next game found Burlington on an "off day" and Plattsburg won 19-0. Our boys showed signs of real playing every once in a while, but were likely to fall down on tackling, so the New York Staters came out ahead.

A big, heavy, experienced Rutland team came to Burlington on the next Friday and crushed B. H. S. under sheer weight by a 24-0 score. The down-staters had a nearly impenetrable line and a powerful backfield and were too good for the Blue and White, although our boys fought like wildcats and gave everything they had.

The team journeyed to Barre again on October 16 and this time lined up against Goddard Seminary. B. H. S. was again outweighed by a big margin, but put up a stalwart battle and forced its opponents to the limit to win 7-0. Their only score came in the early stages of the game, when Goddard rushed the Blue and White off its feet with a lightning attack. The B. H. S. squad threatened to score in the last few minutes of the game when they opened up a dazzling advance on forward passes, but the enemy stood firm in the shadow of their goal and were finally declared victorious.

The final game of the season was with St. Albans at Burlington, and the Railroad City school sent down the heaviest eleven to appear on Centennial Field for several years. They also presented a fast and well-trained game which gave them a 39-7 victory. The Blue and White once more fought valiantly against overwhelming odds and were at last rewarded in a small measure by scoring their first, and also last, touchdown of the year. This came when the visitors were leading by two touchdowns and resulted from a beautiful 40-yard pass from Niles to Loudon; the latter caught the pigskin in the end zone and sent B. H. S. adherents into paroxysms of joy. However, our light line was no match for the Green and Gold, who continued to pile up the score and won handily.

The Blue and White played entirely out of its class in every game and cannot be criticized on the outcome of the season. With a line averaging only 166 pounds and a backfield but 164, B. H. S. was at a distinct disadvantage before any of the games had begun. Being outweighed anywhere from 8 to 15 pounds to a man in every game would naturally make the average team give up the game (mentally) before it had started; but not so with our valiant warriors—the disadvantage only went to make them fight all the harder. They never gave up fighting for all they were worth even when the score was way against them. That was the spirit which the team had in it and many were the compliments handed them by their opponents and their coaches after they had run up against the Blue and White.

With only four regulars from this fighting aggregation being lost by graduation, the outlook for a bright season next year is very promising. "Chief" Niles was elected by the letter men directly after the close of the season to lead the 1927 eleven. He played his third year at end last fall and was a consistently good player all the season, displaying some accurate forward passing and wonderful playing on the defensive in every game.

Boys' Varsity Basketball, 1926-27

Behold our championship basketball team! Seventeen victories with only three defeats and two of these suffered at the national tournament constitutes a record that will go down in the athletic annals of Burlington High School as one of the best seasons ever enjoyed by wearers of the Blue and White. The team won the northern Vermont league title without suffering a defeat in six starts, the city championship for the second consecutive time by winning two of its annual three-game series with Cathedral High, and the state championship by walking away with three games in the University of Vermont's sixth annual basketball tournament. With this marvelous record behind them, Coach Hard's warriors were pleasantly surprised by receiving an invitation from H. O. Chrisler to attend the ninth national interscholastic basketball tournament to be held under the auspices of the University of Chicago at the Windy City from March 27 through April 2. It was decided immediately to attend the big meet if possible, and by staging a game with a crack alumni outfit and by generous pecuniary offerings from the various clubs and organizations of the business men of Burlington, together with contributions secured by students during a big tag day, sufficient money was raised to make the trip a reality and the whole squad left their Queen City on March 25 for the Windy City, where they arrived two days later. The first game was played two days later. After the long tiring train ride the boys did not have time to get their proper rest and were defeated by Bothell, Wash. All the breaks were against Edmunds and hard luck seemed to stick with them throughout, but had they been anywhere near up to their usual form the Blue and White would have come out ahead easily. There was still another chance left, in the consolation tournament, but this time, too, B. H. S. was doomed to bitter disappointment and after outplaying their opponents for three-quarters of the game, were finally subdued under an avalanche of baskets in the last period and beaten by Durham, N. C., by a 37-21 count. The Green Mountaineers fought hard every minute but simply did not have a "good" night; however, on their return a week later they were given a royal reception by their loyal schoolmates who stuck by them in defeat with rare sportsmanship.

The season got under way the middle of November and after a month of hard practice the big squad was finally cut down to eleven men, who were to be retained the rest of the season. The first game resulted in a 32-18 victory over the alumni, and after that Captain Warner and his cohorts kept up their winning stride and copped their next eight games before being defeated by one basket by Cathedral, in an overtime period game which constituted the second battle of the city series. Again the Blue and White went on a rampage and succeeded in hanging up another record of four straight wins, ending their regular schedule with thirteen wins and one defeat. In the state tournament held in Burlington, March 11 and 12, Proctor, the champion of southern Vermont, was defeated easily in the first round 27-9, and Northfield bowed in the semi-finals 32-14. Springfield was next on the list and in the final game which was played before a capacity crowd in the huge hall, Burlington won a fiercely-contested game from their southern rivals by 25-15. After the game Dr. K. A. Aldinger of the University of Vermont presented the team with two beautifully engraved silver cups and nine gold basketballs as a reward for winning the title.

"Flea" Warner was the individual star of the team in a vast majority of the games, especially during the state tourney, and led the list in individual scoring with the amazing total of 148 points besides being responsible for a good share of the rest by his fine floor work and passing. "Paulie" Preston, who started the season as a sub forward, developed into a first-class pivot man and when "Marv" Hardy was seriously injured toward the last of the year he did yeomen work at center, thus allowing Captain Warner to play his natural position at forward. It was Preston who was mainly responsible for the winning of the first two games of the state meet. Hardy was a brilliant star until he was so unfortunately injured, but still played bravely on afterward and could always be counted on to cause the best opposition no little worry. "Stevie" Boyd proved an invaluable asset in getting the team going at the start of every contest by his uncanny work on signal plays. "Barney" Doyle and "Chief" Niles formed the best pair of guards to don a B. H. S. uniform for many years and few opposing teams were able to break through their impregnable defense to any advantage. "Eddie" Knight, "Bobby" Gadue and "Zipper" Akins formed the most reliable group of substitutes in our basketball history and not a few games were won by their fine work. Coach Milton L. (Buck) Hard again proved to the satisfaction of the whole town his ability to turn out championship teams and certainly must be handed his own big share of the glory in being responsible for the high-grade basketball which his men showed in every fracas, while Manager Loudon's untiring efforts aided materially throughout the season.

The new gymnasium which was started last summer was not completed in time for the opening of the season, but was finished a short time after Christmas and Spaulding High fell before Burlington's onslaught in the first game to be played on the new surface. It is certainly a wonderful addition to our already beautiful school and is greatly appreciated by everyone who had the pleasure to be among those present at any of the games. The seating capacity is 1,000 persons when taxed to the limit and the floor itself is the biggest in the State, while the fittings are of the very latest and best design.

Girls' Varsity Basketball, 1926-27

Although our girls did not win any championships this season, they did make a very impressive showing and came in a close second in the Winooski Valley League race, being nosed out by their old rival, Spaulding, who captured the title. Mr. Gibson was again chosen coach of the quintet, and it was largely due to his untiring efforts, and efficient tutelage that the Blue and White was able to enjoy so successful a season.

The team started out at a fast pace and won their first six games, included in which was a 29-22 victory over Spaulding; then the inevitable slump struck with full force and games were dropped to Montpelier and Spaulding away from home, while a tie was played with Essex Junction, the latter defeating their chances of a tie with the Barre team for first place in the league.

Of the thirteen games participated in, Burlington won ten, lost two and tied one, all in all making a huge success.

After the last game, Ruth Niles '28, was re-elected as captain for the coming year, while Barbara Allen was chosen manager.

Boys' Class Basketball

The Class of 1927 has no unusually good record in basketball, but all things considered, our teams have done very well. One reason they have not done better is because of the large number drafted to the varsity.

In our Freshman year we had a good record and ranked second in the league. The class of '24, which won the Championship four years running, was barely able to beat our team by a 21-20 tally. The outstanding players were Boyd and Hardy. Boyd was high scorer of the league. The team did make a record, however, when it won the Junior City Tournament.

The Sophomore year was our poorest season due to the loss of four regulars, two of them, Boyd and Hardy, becoming regular forwards on the Varsity team. Preston was the outstanding player of the team and was chosen All-League Center. The team finished third in the league race.

By far the best team of all was the one of our Junior year. We won the League title, with no defeats and lost but one game the whole year. The only close game in the League was with the Seniors, which required three extra periods to decide—19-18. The outstanding stars were Knight, Preston and Loudon. Preston was a forward on the All-League quintet and Loudon was captain and guard.

In our Senior year, the team, as usual, was again weakened by the loss of men to the Varsity, Knight, Loudon and Preston being drafted. With but one veteran, Tommy Howard, and several subs to depend on, a fairly good team was built up. The team was erratic and at times played like champions, only to fall down miserably at the crucial moment. They finished in second place. Tindall and Howard stood out above the rest.

Although the four-year record is not very impressive, consider the list of Class League players of 1927 who became varsity members: Boyd, Hardy, Gadue, Knight, Preston, Barrett and Loudon, who were all taken at one time or another.

Year	Captain	Coach
1924	S. Boyd	Wendt
1925	P. Preston	L. Palmer
1926	T. Loudon, E. Knight	F. E. Whitmarsh
1927	M. Donaldson	F. E. Whitmarsh

Girls' Class Basketball

Although the Senior girls have not had the good fortune to win any championships during their four years they came very near to attaining the title. When they were Freshmen they had a very queer streak of luck. They lost all of their games except one with the Sophomores who were champions that year. This victory which bowed the Sophomores before the Freshmen greatly strengthened the morale of the team. Our Sophomore year was the best. For the first two years the girls played boys' rules, but in the Junior year modified girls' rules were adopted. The coach, Marvin Hardy, had little material to work with after three strong players, Vera Barbour, Ruth Niles and Sophia Saiger, were chosen to play on the Varsity, yet in spite of the handicap the team had a good year.

Senior year the girls came back with a strong fighting spirit but they were weakened by the loss of Vesta Babson and Olga Hallock to the Varsity. Again the team lost out, this time to the Juniors. But Seniors never give up hope; if they don't win they try again. On the whole the Seniors have a record to be proud of and have shown real sportsmanship in basketball.

The players on the Senior squad this year are as follows:

Centers	Forwards	Guards
Sophia Saiger	Florence Bissette	Elizabeth Towne
Lydia Bartlett	Helen Burns	Ruth Hoag
Margaret Mower	Sarah Perelman	Helene Clay
	Cecelia Ready	Rachel Bayarsky
	Margaret Mower	Margaret Mower

Year	Captains	Managers	Coaches
1924	Florence Bissette	Ruth Niles	Walter Croto
1925	Sophia Saiger	Ruth Niles	David Fine
1926	Florence Bissette	Vesta Babson	Marvin Hardy
1927	Elizabeth Towne	Lydia Bartlett	Marvin Hardy

ACTIVITIES

The Register

The Register, our school paper, is published at seven intervals during the school year by the students of Burlington High School.

It contains editorials, which give the opinions of the students on various activities which are of interest to the school. Within its leaves may be found, also, literary work, poems, short stories, themes, and reports of all the athletic contests. To keep a diary of the school life we have the local department which tells of the interesting happenings each day. Then there is the joke department containing humorous incidents that occur both in and outside of school. The pictures that appear on the front cover or above each department are drawn by students who are gifted in this respect.

The paper would not be able to exist if it were not for the advertisers, who so generously advertise in our columns. The money taken in by subscriptions pays for only one-quarter of the expense of the publication, so the part that the advertisers play in making the paper a success is apparent.

While the paper does keep an account of the events of the school, it also brings out the talents of many students that would not be revealed unless there were a school paper.

This year the board is making it a point to have a new cut in every issue. Another new feature of the paper is having three typists, who type the copy before it is given to the printer. Also this year a commercial department has been started. It is hoped that this department will be kept up during the years to come because it shows the fine work that is done by the commercial students.

Last year's Register won the prize offered by the University of Vermont to the school having the best publication in the State. The prize is a scholarship awarded to the editor-in-chief or the business manager, the one who has done the most to make the paper successful. The scholarship cannot be awarded to the same school for two successive years.

May the Register grow bigger and better in every respect as the years roll by.

The Register Board.

The Band

This year Mr. Holmes has been able to present to B. H. S. a worthy addition and one which has been lacking in past years—the High School Band!

The new organization consists of twenty-six pieces, with all the major band instruments. Eight of the members are from the class of '27.

The first public appearance of the Band was at the opening of the new gymnasium when B. H. S. won a game from Spaulding High. What "pep" the Band added to the occasion! It was prominent at other games and on the concert program. We all want to hear more of the lively music furnished at that time.

The school owns ten of the instruments and in this way will be assured of a permanent band if the students are ready to add numbers and encouragement to this group every year.

Let us make it a duty to support the Band and Orchestra in any way we can and thus show that we fully appreciate the work of organizing and developing these two musical organizations.

Hats off to the Band! May it live long and prosper!

The Debating Team

Five years ago four Seniors, backed by a truckful of cheering supporters and two members of the faculty, rode off to St. Albans to debate the High School on the "Merchant Marine." This debate, the first interscholastic debate in which B. H. S. ever participated, proved also the first defeat, for the judges rendered a unanimous decision for the St. Albans' team. Three years later the Vermont Interscholastic Debating League was organized, and Burlington High School became a member of the league. After its second debate that year B. H. S. was eliminated from the league. Because of the shortsighted policy of the old Debating Club underclassmen were barred from the team; consequently the following year a new team was organized, whose members had never before had any experience in debate.

Last January eight students announced their intention of competing for a new varsity team which was to represent B. H. S. in the debates for 1927. The eight were Louis Lisman, Sophie Levin, Fred Householder, Stuart Corbin, Abraham Likosky, Russell Colburn, Joseph Basralian and Lawrence Forville. As a result of the competition the following team was chosen by a committee of teachers and judges: Louis Lisman '27, captain; Fred Householder '28, manager; Sophie Levin '28; Stuart Corbin '27, alternate.

The team was coached by Mr. Colburn on the subject, "Resolved, that Congress should enact legislation embodying the principles of the Haugen Farm Relief Bill."

A very successful season was anticipated. At the time of this writing only one debate had been held. In its tilt with Essex Junction in February, Burlington, upholding the negative, was declared the victor by a 2-1 decision of the following judges: Prof. B. C. Douglass, C. R. White, both of Burlington, and Principal W. L. Taplin of Fairfax. The schedule adopted by the Debating League called for debates with Vergennes and Enosburg in March. The semi-finals were scheduled for April, and the final debate, to choose the champion team, for May.

With the earnest cooperation of Mr. Colburn, Mr. Pearl and other members of the faculty even now we feel safe in prophesying a highly successful season for our team.

The Debating Club

Five years ago a group of Seniors, versed in the principles of argumentation, decided to organize a debating club. From that organization sprang the Burlington High School Debating Club, officially organized in September, 1925, "to encourage practice in debate" among the students of B. H. S. Last October a group of enthusiastic students—Seniors, Juniors and Sophomores—appended their names to the constitution and became recognized members of the Debating Club. Officers chosen were:

Louis Lisman ..... President
Lucille Fine ..... Vice-President
Margaret Mower ..... Secretary
Ruth Hoag ..... Treasurer

From October to May the students debated. The abolition of interscholastic football, the modification of the examination system, the study of the classics in high school, student self-government, the child labor amendment, farm relief, all were deemed fit subjects for debate. From October to March twelve debates had been held, under the auspices of the Debating Club, with many more in preparation. Twenty-four students participated in these debates, some taking part in as many as seven or eight. Few outstanding debaters appeared. It was an organization not for the few but for the whole school.

Many innovations were introduced into the debates this year. Subjects of all types and of varying degrees of importance were chosen. The majority of the judges in many debates were students and, at some debates, an expert judge or critic delivered the decision. Formal debates, informal debates, extemporaneous debates and debates modeled on the English system, all found a place in the weekly or fortnightly programs. Memorized speeches were discouraged. The student who was interested in debate and who was willing to study and to work profited amply from the club.

In November and December members of the club began the annual assembly talks. These talks of from five to fifteen minutes each proved entertaining to the school, pleasurable and instructive to the speakers. Subjects varying from the witty to the serious and dogmatic were chosen. The Debating Club, the Debating Team, the Oread, the Register and the French Club found speakers to represent them and to describe their work. The late Dr. Eliot, study, travel in Egypt, school spirit, examinations, and the nomenclature of fruits were chosen for the morning talks.

In January a varsity team was organized. In February and March class teams were chosen to compete for the cup offered by the Debating Society of 1924-25.

The Debating Club of 1926-27 enjoyed a highly successful season. No student who did his work has cause to regret the eight months he spent in the Debating Club. In the classes of the future we place our trust that they will uphold the Debating Club and will carry on its work.

Le Cercle Francais de L'Ecole Superieure

Le Cercle Français cherche à intéresser les étudiants à la langue française et à aider les professeurs du département.

Notre première séance était courte, comme nous avions un grand nombre d'initiés.

Le Cercle s'est abonné à deux bonnes revues françaises dont l'une est L'Illustration. On les emploie dans une des salles de lecture classe.

Cette année, pour la première fois, le Cercle a obtenu les services d'un magicien, M. Lavigne. Sa représentation était donnée en français et on l'a trouvée instructive aussi bien qu'intéressante.

Le 18 mars le Cercle a présenté un carnaval pour célébrer la fête de Saint Patric.

Senior Dramatic Club

The past year has been one of great accomplishments for the Senior Dramatic Club. Of the hundred and thirty members in the class, eighty are members of the club. The greater part of these have already taken some part in the program during the year.

At the first meeting we agreed to accept the purpose and to carry on the work as directed by the constitution of the Senior Dramatic Club in former years. We also were permitted to hold meetings regularly in our new assembly hall.

This assembly hall has been one of the greatest boosts to the club. The fine stage offers every chance for a club to have plays of a character that never before have been possible. The effective lighting and the heavy rich brown curtains have all added to the atmosphere of the plays and to their enjoyment by the audience.

The first play was "Suppressed Desires." This was a great success. Before and after the play there were several musical numbers such as singing, piano solos and selections by the Ukulele Trio.

The first meeting was followed by many more, and plays were presented, some of the most important of which were: "Six Cups of Chocolate," "Two Dollars Please," "Not a Man in the House," "His Old Sweethearts," "The Lost Silk Hat," "If Shakespeare Lived Today," and "The Exchange." The last play was presented in assembly as the dedication of our new front curtains for the stage.

We hope that the Senior Dramatic Clubs of the future will have as many opportunities for success as we have had this past year, and make use of these opportunities as we hope we have done.

Officers of the Club:

William Freeman ..... President
Helen O'Neill ..... Vice-President
Maurice Bevins ..... Treasurer
Pearl Duguid ..... Secretary

Junior Dramatic Club

The Junior Dramatic Club was not very active last year. Owing to a rule concerning marks, many were forced to drop out of the club or else remain away until their marks were brought up to the right standing. Then, too, there was great difficulty in obtaining the assembly hall, the only nights allowed for activities being Friday and Saturday. There were no officers, committees were elected at each meeting to provide the entertainment. Despite these difficulties we enjoyed several excellent programs. The plays presented brought out a considerable amount of good acting and some real stars were discovered.

On Saturday evening, March 6, a combined meeting of the Junior and Senior Dramatic Clubs was held in the assembly hall. Two delightful plays were given. "The Dress Rehearsal of Hamlet" was presented by the Seniors and a play entitled "Tickless Times" was given by the Juniors. Between the plays musical selections were rendered by a few members of the club.

Miss O'Sullivan took great responsibility in our affairs and it was with her help that we were able to take up the more advanced and independent work of the Senior Dramatic Club.

The Mothers' Club

In the past years the work of the Mothers' Club has been a very great help to the school, and this year has been no exception. It has presented the girls' varsity basketball team with white sweaters. It has also presented each member of the Debating team with a pin in appreciation of their excellent work. The Mothers' Club, with the cooperation of the teachers of both the Junior and Senior High schools has cared for many needy cases, providing clothing and helping with many other necessities. A part of the success of the Oread Stunt Nite was due to the co-operation and the support the club gave so loyally. The Cafeteria, a new venture this year, owes much of its success to the aid extended by the Mothers' Club. Always "Johnny-on-the-spot" they have helped old B. H. S. out of many a difficulty. And so we wish to extend our appreciation of the loyal support always given our school by the members of the Burlington High School Mothers' Club.

The Girls' Chorus

The Girls' Chorus does not seem to have assumed much importance in years gone by, but this year it has become an active part of school life. In the account in last year's Oread, first mention was given to this chorus, although there has always been one at Commencement, which we feel should receive part of the honor. A music club, that accomplished much in the study of musical selections, was organized last year under the supervision of Miss Davison.

The Girls' Chorus, this year, is a two part chorus under the direction of Mrs. Gladys Pitkin. Mrs. Pitkin is new to the school, but in spite of this fact, she is doing very wonderful work, especially with the Girls' Chorus. Her amiable personality makes one feel like doing anything for her.

The Girls' Chorus made its first appearance at the Burlington High School Orchestra Concert, at the time when the lights inconveniently (or rather, conveniently, for our purpose) went out. The chorus was obliged to sing by candle light and it was a new and thrilling experience to most of the girls.

Both the chorus and its director hope for the continuance of this organization and even greater glory in future years.

The Male Quartet

A new organization was formed at Burlington High this year, shortly after Midyear Examinations. This new branch of activity is the Male Quartet.

Under the direction of Mrs. Pitkin, a group of four students undertook the development of what has now become an accomplished quartet. Their first appearance was at the French Club Carnival where their harmonious melodies were well received. Since then the quartet has appeared several times; in assembly, at the Orchestra Concert, the Sophomore Reception and at numerous other places.

The personnel of the quartet is as follows: First tenor, Robert Rousseau, alternating with Raymond Towne; second tenor, Thomas Howard, alternating with Edward Knight; first bass, Bruce Butterfield; and second bass, "Bill" Loudon.

It is hoped that this newly formed organization will become a permanent institution in the school. If this group has proved successful, and we feel that it has, the credit, to quote the members of the quartet, is almost entirely due to the persistent efforts of Mrs. Pitkin, without whom it could not have come into existence.

The Photo-Play Club

The Photo-Play Club has been organized this year since the Christmas vacation for the purpose of promoting motion pictures in Burlington High School, not only instructive and educational pictures, but wholesome and entertaining ones that will be of interest to the graded pupils as well as to the Junior and Senior High School students.

At the third meeting the constitution was adopted and election of officers made. The officers are to be a president, a boy of the Senior class; a vice-president, a boy from the Junior class, according to the official classified rank. The offices of secretary and treasurer shall be open to either boys or girls of the two upper classes and there shall be a faculty auditor. The officers are to be elected annually and each separately by a majority vote by ballot of the eligible members of this organization. It is understood that the members of the Photo-Play Club must be members of the three upper classes of Burlington High School, and that they must attain satisfactory marks in all their studies in order to receive credit, appointments from the club, or be able to participate in any kind of activities of the organization. The membership totals about one hundred.

The officers elected were as follows:

Joseph Basralian '27 ..... President
Elliott Rice '28 ..... Vice-President
Florence Green '27 ..... Secretary
Eleanor Weston '27 ..... Treasurer
Mr. Pearl ..... Faculty Auditor

The officers have appointed for the remainder of the year both a boy and a girl to head committees for looking up pictures for the programs, ushering, advertising and selling of tickets.

The Photo-Play Club has been organized not only for showing wholesome and entertaining pictures at a moderate price, but also as a financial aid to the various clubs.

Art Club

This year the art students voted to continue with the club which was organized two years ago under the leadership of Miss Jackson. At the first meeting of the club it was decided that the tax would be ten cents a month and that the meetings would be held the first Friday of every month. At the second meeting of the club a general entertainment with initiations was held in Room 18, Junior High Building. It is hoped that many other entertainments may be given, including a masquerade ball.

The officers of the club are:

Eilene Davis ..... President
Mildred Lauzon ..... Vice-President
Vera Barbour ..... Secretary
Ella Younge ..... Treasurer

Press Boards

Last October a group of us were called down to the office. We went with sinking hearts wondering what we had done now. We entered Mr. Pearl's office and others were seated there with solemn looks on their faces. We were informed by Mr. Pearl that we were the chosen ones to represent the school as reporters for the city newspapers. There was to be an editor-in-chief, an athletic editor, and four reporters. These reporters were picked from the various classes, one or two being from the Junior High School. We were told that we were to cover all High School news and see that it was published in the newspaper which we were on.

FREE PRESS BOARD

The Free Press Board consists of six members: Lorraine Martin '27, editor-in-chief; Elliott Rice '28, athletic director; Dorothy Davis '30, Junior High School editor; Harriette Smith '27, girls' athletic and general activity reporter; Margaret Birnie and Lillian Mount '28, Junior class reporters. Miss Loretta Dyke has most kindly acted as advisor.

DAILY NEWS BOARD

The board for the Daily News was chosen as follows: Lucille Fine '27, editor-in-chief; Addison Jackson '27, athletic editor; Pearle Cannon '29, Norma Freeman '28 and Richard Cowles '27 as Senior High School reporters; and Merwin McIntosh as Junior High reporter. The members of this board met a representative of the Daily News and it was decided to have a paper within a paper. The name "High School Gossip" was chosen and the reporters were given special school activities to cover: Norma Freeman '28, club editor; Pearle Cannon '29, personal editor; and Richard Cowles '27, general news. Alcott Parks '27 was added to the board to furnish the "Comic Corner" with jokes.

This paper within a paper was published twice a week by the board. Material was handed to the editor-in-chief, who corrected it and then arranged it, and finally passed it to the Daily News.

It has not been easy for this group to have something twice a week almost every week throughout the year, but the members of the board have kept up the "grind" and the editor-in-chief is proud of them. Miss Louise H. Reynolds has been the most kind and helpful advisor of this board and they are grateful to her.

Both boards sincerely hope that in the next school year such boards will be organized again and thus keep up the journalistic qualities of the school.

Events

The Junior Banquet

Contrary to the usual custom of holding the Junior banquet at the Vermont, last year the class dined at the Ethan Allen Club.

Everyone arrived early and in great excitement. The unfortunates who had to speak could be heard mumbling incoherently to themselves, all the time perspiring freely.

When we entered the dining room we were impressed by the beauty of the decorations. The color scheme was lavender and gold and extended even to the candles.

As soon as everyone was seated the meal commenced, and what a feast it was! Soup, salad, roast chicken, dressing, green peas, olives, pickles, ice cream, cake and coffee. Everyone did the menu ample justice and then the program commenced. "Tommy" Loudon was toastmaster and did very well. Mr. Colburn and Mr. Pearl first gave short speeches of greeting. Then our learned president, Bruce Butterfield, orated to the satisfaction of all. Next William Freeman toasted the faculty and Miss O'Sullivan responded graciously. Lucille Fine toasted the school and was followed by toasts to the boys and girls by Grace Cashman and Paul Preston, respectively. Lorraine Martin, in her toast to the Mothers' Club, exhorted us to appreciate the work this organization does for all of us. The next, a toast to girls' athletics, was scheduled to be a debate by Messrs. Hardy and Boyd, but Hardy was among the missing and consequently Boyd struggled through it alone. Ruth Niles reciprocated by toasting boys' athletics. The class, past, present and future, was reviewed and prophesied to by Lydia Bartlett, "Tommy" Howard and Margaret Mower. The last feature was a toast of unknown quantity, labeled and rendered by Charles Newton. This made a big hit with everyone.

We then adjourned and went to the High School, where the Seniors had kindly arranged a dance for us. The good times we had at the Junior banquet will long linger in our memories in years to come.

Senior Prize Speaking

The annual Senior Prize Speaking Contest took place in the Assembly Hall on Tuesday evening, April 26, 1927.

The program opened with a musical selection by the High School Orchestra. The first speaker was Sophia Saiger, who, by her fine interpretation of "Fleurette" by Robert Service, won the first prize for girls. The second prize, for girls, went to Gertrude Levin, who recited "A Legend of Brigenz" by Adelaide Proctor. The other speakers were Lucille Fine and Ruth Hoag, who gave "How he saved St. Michael's" by Mary A. P. Stansburg, and Robert Schauffler's "Scum of the Earth."

Louis Lisman won the first prize for boys by delivering the "Address at the Washington Conference" by Aristide Briand. The second prize for boys went to Truman Webster, whose selection was "Old Ironsides" by William Sulzer. The other speakers were Richard Cowles and Julius Perelman, who gave "The Address at the Burial of an Unknown Soldier" by Warren G. Harding, and "Spartacus to the Gladiators" by Rev. Elijah Kellogg.

To add to the enjoyment of the evening, the High School Chorus and our popular male quartet (this time consisting of Raymond Towne, Thomas Howard, Bruce Butterfield and William Loudon) gave several vocal selections.

The judges were Professor John T. Metcalf, Mrs. Thomas W. Parkhill, and Hugh E. Sinclair. Mrs. Paul French was the coach.

Supervisor John E. Colburn awarded the prizes. He stated that these prizes were originally given by the class of 1891, but when these funds were depleted, the Mothers' Club came to the rescue as usual and generously gave four prizes instead of two.

All the contestants were received enthusiastically aud they most certainly deserved the approbation they received.

Oread Stunt Nite

'PICKLES'

Yea, even though we be twenty or forty, every time we eat pickles we shall surely think of "Pickles."

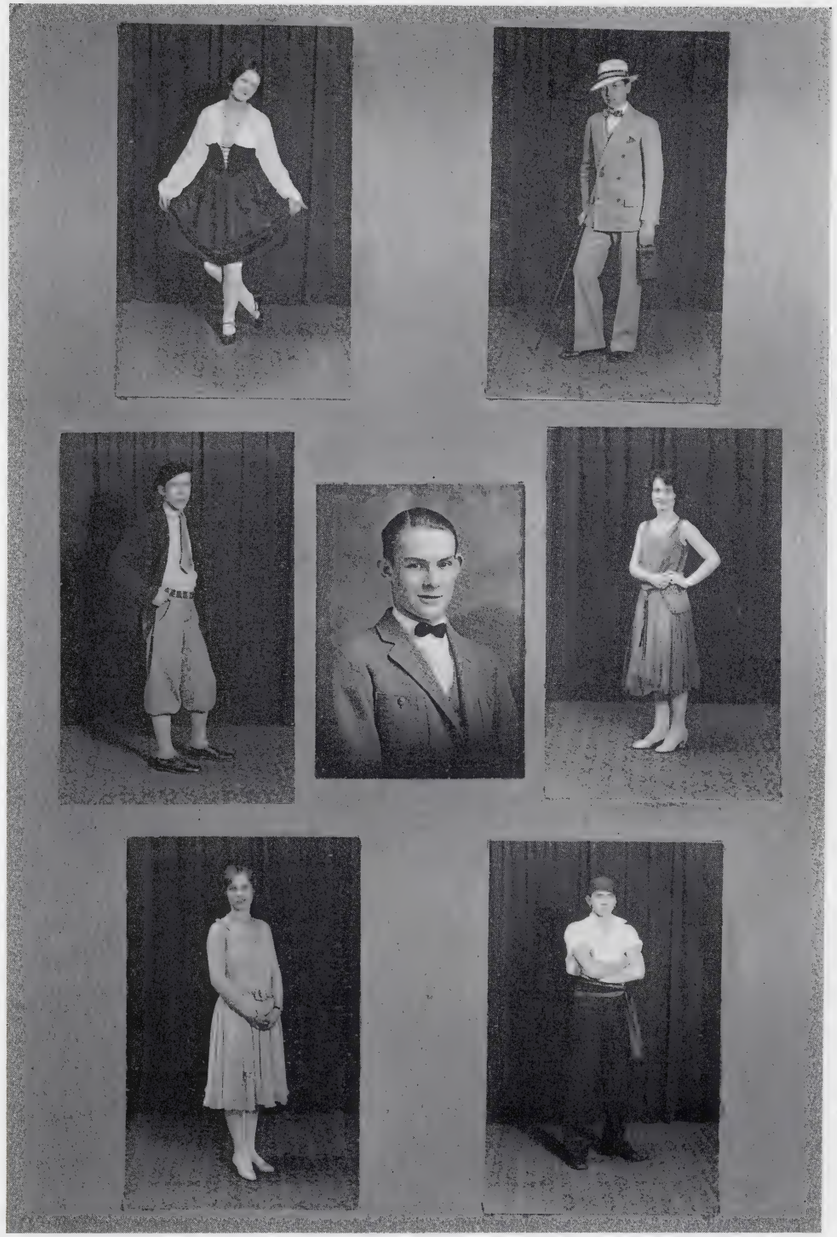
From the days of the first rehearsals to the final curtain on January 29, "Pickles" was an interesting play. When we hear the name "Pickles" we think immediately of the weeks of hard work, and the excitement, and the weariness connected with it. But in later years all that will be forgotten and "Pickles" will be a pleasant memory, a period of enjoyment of our Senior year.

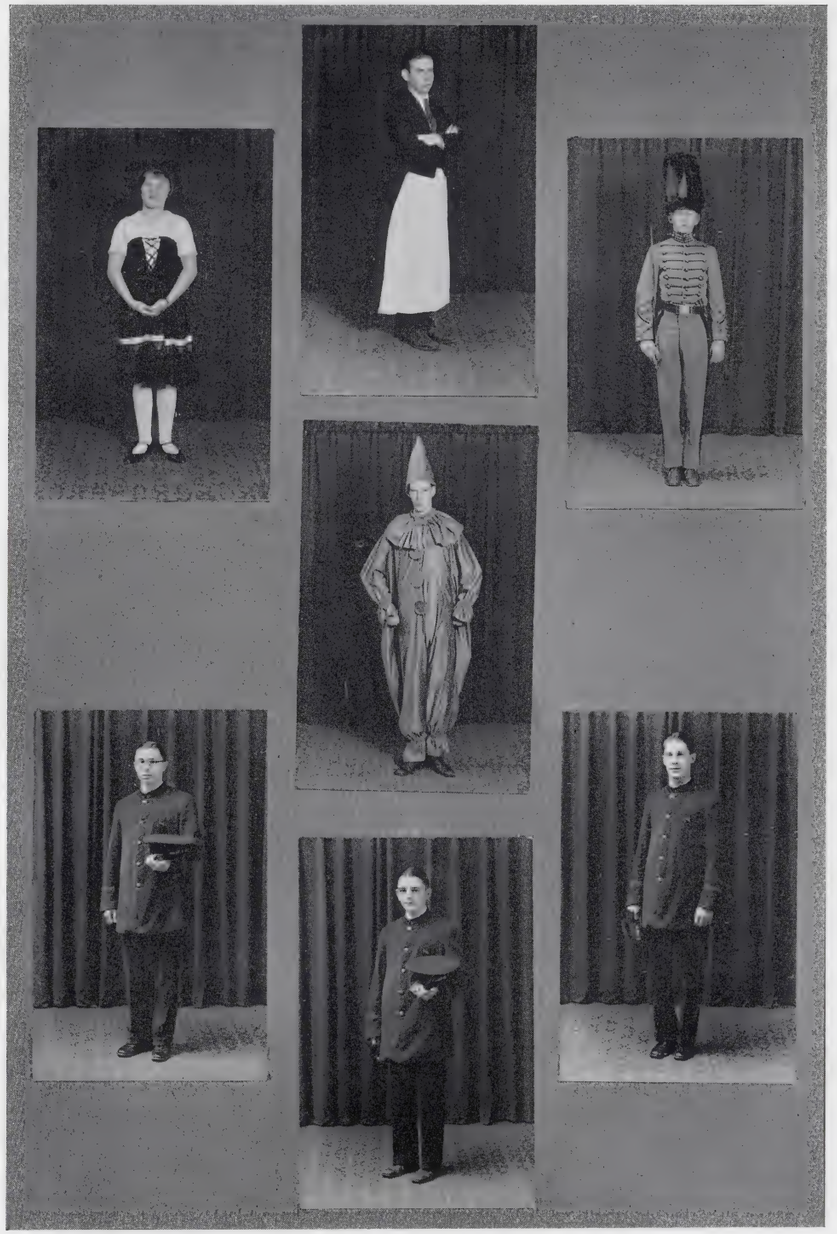
The cast of "Pickles" was chosen by Miss O'Sullivan with suggestions from others. The following was our most efficient cast: Hans Maier, proprietor of the Wurtzelpraeter Inn, Bruce Butterfield; Louisa, a waitress, Shirley Sanders; Captain Kinski, chief of Detective Bureau of Vienna, Stuart Corbin; Bumski, Rumski and Dumski, Kinski's faithful sleuths, Philips King, Thomas Howard and Francis Norman, respectively; J. Jennison Jones, an advertising expert, Parker Start; Jigo, a Hungarian gypsy, William Loudon; Ilona, a gypsy girl, Grace Cashman; Arthur Crefont, a young American artist, Robert Rousseau; June Pennington, an American heiress, Helen O'Neill; Jonas H. Pennington, proprietor of "Peter Piper Pickles," Harvey Butterfield; Lady Vivian Delancy, a charming English widow, Rebecca Seaver.

The acting was, for mere high school students, simply marvelous. We other Seniors are proud of those who participated in it. Two Juniors were principals of the cast and we are most grateful to them for their utmost effort. Their performances were those of finished stage professionals. The cast rehearsed and rehearsed and rehearsed. We other mortals caught occasional glimpses of them and a few of us tried to listen surreptitiously, but we were hastily and decisively pushed out. It was only by constant rehearsing that the principals were able to reach the degree of excellence and finish attained by them. It was due to Miss O'Sullivan's tireless efforts and coaching that we did make a success of "Pickles."

The chorus was directed by Mrs. Pitkin and Mrs. Arkley as the accompanist. It is virtually impossible to print here the seventy-odd names of the chorus who worked so hard to make "Pickles" an efficient, unhesitating play. To Mrs. Pitkin goes the credit for the good singing of the chorus, for she had absolutely untrained voices to work with. The chorus practiced every night after school, and the last week they practiced afternoon and night. The Seniors express their appreciation to the Sophomore and Junior members of the chorus and hope they, too, will have such success with their Oread Stunt Nites.

So on January 28 and 29 "Pickles" was presented at the Strong Theater by





High School students. Everybody was wondering just what this was, for everybody had heard about it, due to Miss Hoyt's extensive advertising, and the part of Mrs. Deyett in the management of the tickets. And so after weeks of hard labor, weeks of worrying, both on the part of students and teachers, "Pickles" was first presented to a "full house" with our own B. H. S. Orchestra playing for us. Everybody was on edge with expectancy, and back-stage and in the wings prayers were sent up in thankfulness that it was going over so wonderfully. Three acts, "chuck" full of humor, singing, "wise cracks" and good acting, with the aid of beautiful costumes taken care of by Miss Sparhawk, were received by an enthusiastic audience. The final curtain went down. "Pickles" was a success! We jubilantly made our way home confident of "overflowing" houses the next day.

Taken all in all, it was all due to the wonderful work of Miss O'Sullivan. We cannot express in words our gratefulness to her, for she "carried on" and "carried us on" until the final curtain.

The next two performances were equal successes and we felt the work put into this show was worth it; we were positively sorry to see the final curtain.

But remember, Juniors and Sophomores, if anyone tries to say one word against "Pickles," you tell 'em to "Ho-o-o-o-old it!"

The French Club Carnival

The second big social event of the year took place on the evening of March 18, in the Gym. But we did not recognize the Gym, when we entered. The place was turned into a veritable fairyland. A color scheme of green and white with pink and yellow roses was used. The Gym was roofed with the green and white paper; the bleachers were covered with it and the effect was of a low-ceilinged room. Just below the bleachers were green plaques at various intervals on which were intertwined rose, pink, and yellow roses. One-half of the floor space was given over to tables very effectively trimmed in green and white. The other half of the floor was waxed for dancing so that when we entered the Gym the effect was a true cabaret. In one corner was a booth at which one could obtain the so-called "vin rouge," or "champagne," or ice cream. Waitresses garbed in Pierrot costumes attended to trade from the tables. Almost everybody came in costume and, accordingly, the effect was marvelous. Gay pirates, laughing Columbines, Spanish senoritas, pseudo-boys, old-fashioned ladies, tall relics of colonial days, French babies, a Turk in fez and uniform, dancing girls, every describable costume was used. The scene was gay, everybody was happy.

In true cabaret form, there was entertainment between the dances. This consisted of song and dance numbers only and was as follows: Song, Mailla Putnam; Song, Robert Rousseau; Dancing; Dance, Harriett Smith; Song, Eleanor Booth; Dance, by waitresses; Dancing; Dance by Norma Freeman; Quartet, William Loudon, Robert Rousseau, Bruce Butterfield and Edward Knight; Dance, Lorraine Martin, Helen O'Neill; Dancing till 11:30.

At ten o'clock came the Grand March led by Mr. and Mrs. Colburn and then came the awarding of prizes. Gilman Boardman '28 in the garb of an English clergyman took the prize for the best costume; Margaret Kieslich and Smith Towne were acclaimed the best dancers and then they gave us a sample of their terpsichorean art. Everybody then enjoyed dancing until 11:30. It was undoubtedly the gayest event of the year and the true spirit of the carnival was caught by the costumed throng of people.

"Sophomores" Take Heed!

A great amount of bluffing,
Lots of air quite hot,
Make a recitation
Seem like what it's not;
And so you did not hurry,
Nor sat up late to cram,
Nor had the blues and worry,
But—you failed in your exams.

Notice

The next issue of the Oread will contain some very interesting reading matter. Among the articles promised is a scholarly one from the pen of Louis Lisman entitled "How I Became President." Donald Josselyn also has in preparation an interesting paper on "Burlington Girls."

Elmer Bullock will begin his series of articles on "Training a Football Squad." Miss Lucille Fine in collaboration with Stuart Corbin will issue a department headed "After Dinner Speeches."

Morris Schmeltzer will contribute a pretty little spring poem entitled "May." We may say that the rôle of poet is a comparatively new one for Mr. Schmeltzer, his only other attempt being "In History Class."

We are glad to say that Miss Seaver will be able to resume her editorship of the "Heart to Heart Talks With Boys" and will be aided in this enterprise by Miss Burns. It is unnecessary to say any word of praise in these ladies' behalf as their breezy style is known to all of us.

Mr. Fifield will continue the discussion of "Modern and Simplified Spelling." Unsuccessful attempts along these lines make it necessary for him to further outline his methods.

Miss Arbuthnot will design the cover of this edition and no doubt will adorn it with a significant "Ship of State."

Little mention has been made in connection with the "New Era Ads" to appear in this number. Mr. Swift has been ably assisted in this work by his expert company.

The price of the "Complete Works" edition will be about $275 to cover minor expenses.

It might be well to add that none of the above articles will appear in separate book form as the price is extremely reasonable.

Dedicated to "Pop" Terrill

English is a language
And it's always going to be;
It started with the Saxons,
And now it's got to me.
Latin is a language;
At least it used to be;
First it killed the Romans,
And now it's killing me.

Our Hair Contest

After several hours of deep and ponderous thought, foresight and consideration, our worthy judges (the Honorable Oread Board) have seen fit to render this, their ultimatum on the Hair Contest. The conference was a deep and lengthy one, but the result was a unanimous decision in favor of Mr. Donald Josselyn. A beautiful shiny new half-inch blue ribbon will be duly presented to him some time in the future that he may wear it as the winner of the Blonde Hair Contest for Men and also to signify the affection and gratitude that the Oread Board and the class of nineteen hundred and twenty-seven extend to him.

Because of the large number of men with beautiful, glossy, dark hair, the judges had great difficulty in deciding who should have the red ribbon. The discussion of the winner of this prize lasted fully a week as the votes were divided. Finally, the nervous, care-worn and tired judges have agreed to award the red ribbon, signifying the winner of the Men's Dark Hair Contest, to Mr. William Loudon. Incidentally, the red ribbon, which will also be presented in due course of time, is also one-half inch wide.

The announcement of the verdict of the judges was postponed again and again, due to the fact that there was a lengthy discussion on whether the girls' contest should, besides having a straight bob prize and a boyish bob prize, also have prizes for light and dark hair. Before anything was actually decided there was much heated talk, but the negative prevailed and consequently there are only two more prizes to award. The first, the boyish bob prize, which consists of a bright green, half-inch ribbon, goes to Miss Grace Cashman. We sincerely regret that Miss Cashman has decided not to cut her hair again, as this boyish style is very becoming to her type of beauty and undoubtedly would have brought her much fame and money if she had gone to Hollywood to pose for the movies.

The last but not the least by any means is our prize for the girls' long or straight bob, which is this time a yellow ribbon. Again the judges voted unanimously to award this beautiful, half-inch, yellow ribbon to Miss Phyllis Arbuthnot. We sincerely hope that she may always retain her dark and beautifully waved hair and may she never have to suffer the degradation of entering a beauty parlor to have a permanent wave!

Due to lack of funds in the Oread Board treasury, we cannot present any mementos to the one hundred and thirty odd contestants, but we might suggest that they flunk out of school this year so they can come back and enter next year's contest.

THE STORY

Came the dawn, and through the stillness of the city street resounded the clarion call of "Ice—ice—any ice today, lady?" The heart of the beautiful heroine was palpitating strangely—the hero approacheth! There came the faint clank of ringing steel—his spurs? Ah, no. 'Tis but the complaint of the ice-tongs as they are forced to grip the glistening icy mass. Unseen, she awaits his coming rrom her vine-enclosed bower. Alas, 'tis but the screened-in back porch. He rounds the corner, his golden hair shining in the early morning sun. One pictures her, shyly waving a lacy bit of silk—sweet essence of romance. As he enters the door she gayly waves her dishcloth, symbol of her order, and hastens to open the refrigerator. Did he bow with courtly grace and tenderly press her delicate little hand to his lips while softly murmuring, "Greetings, fairest one—your eyes are stars to guide me on my way"? No, with a mighty heave of his brawny right he hoisted the ice into the top. Then he turned to her who stood beside him, a milk bottle in one hand and an ice-pick in the other. "Hello," he said, and the refrigerator hid the rest. They eloped that evening—he on a snow-white charger and she on the palfry, with both fair arms clinging to his steel-encased waist. Alas, 'twas on the seat of a lumbersome ice-wagon that they rode, with a hot-dog in each hand, into a future of ice-tongs and dish-towels.

Ye Goode Olde Twenty-seven

Time—The year 3927 A. D.
Place—A high school Ancient History class.

Dramatis Personæ
The professoress
The various members of the class.

[As the curtain rises it discloses a large room in which are many tables and chairs placed in precise positions. Books are piled neatly on the tables, around which students are seated at attention. At the center front is a large desk, at which sits a pedantic-looking woman. At the side of the desk is a revolving blackboard.]

Prof. Revered ladies and honored gentlemen, the assemblage of which you are the content, will please arrange itself comfortably and prepare to proceed with the historical matter that has been assigned it for study by word of my mouth and on the day preceding this, which latter space of twenty-four hours, including the minutes, precedes in turn tomorrow. The material in hand for discussion this day—the honorable young lady, who is seated at the right of the respected gentleman at her left and who is trying to convey something to him, will desist readily if she has any desire for the knowledge of ancient history—is the United States from the year 1927 onward. You will all please refrain from causing to be open your tomes of knowledge. Webster-Truman, why is the United States remarkable at the period from 1927 onward?

Webster-T. [rising and bowing]. Your majestic self, giver of ancient knowledge, the United States, that ancient country, was then remarkable because of its supreme achievements and moreover and especially its great feminines and masculines. Their names are many. The United States as a union was made great by a group of feminines and masculines who came from a municipality in the northern section of the country, called by an extremely odd name, to wit, Burlington, Vermont. [Sits.]

[Pause while the audience laughs.]

Prof. The recitation that has issued from between your lips and molar apparatus is highly satisfactory from my viewpoint, and, since my viewpoint is ever good, your recitation is indisputably excellent. Weston-Claude, you will rise, advance to the foremost section of this hall and orate to the assemblage herein assembled your report on the science of the age.

Weston-C. [rises, bows, advances with slow, measured steps, bows before the professoress, half turns toward the class and bows]. Honored ladies and revered gentlemen, after having perused the multifarious books that strive to convey learning to our dull craniums, I have discovered the following data in reference to science in the period from 1927 onward in the United States of America. The greatest chemists of the epoch were Vera Barbour, Algernon Pillsbury and Richard Cowles. It was they who made the greatest discovery ever known in the field of chemistry, namely, that most humans have a goodly supply of hot air and quite often emit it for the benefit of their fellow beings. Their companions "in contempore" were Bruce Butterfield, Lydia Bartlett, Helen Burns and Stanley Fiske, who together formulated the law of multiple proportions, which states, in substance, that animals, including humans, should they consume over-plenteous quantities of cake, pie, ice cream, et cetera, will assume proportions that can be expressed only in very large whole numbers. Of this period also were the great mathematicians, Julius Pythagoras Perelman, Elijah Thales Swift, Ahmes Roger Adams, Gertrude Levin Euclid and Rebecca Seaver Hippocrates, whose joint theorem it is that we today attempt to learn in geometry session, namely, "Nothing is better than a good mark; 0 = nothing; 100 = a good mark; therefore, by substituting equals for equals, 0 is better than 100." As disciples of medicine, that era had Eugene Coue Luck, Elizabeth Nightingale Towne and Virginia Bessey Lorenzo, who announced to the world of the day, which, you of course realize, you ignorant knowledge-seekers, had at the time only six continents and did not include the planet Mars as it does today; that iodine taken internally is not good for the complexion. Thus you see what great things those ancient peoples did for our civilization. I thank you, revered ladies and honored gentlemen, for loaning me your hearing mechanisms, and you may have them back now as far as truly yours is concerned. [Walks solemnly back to table and sits down.]

PROF. Brown-Marion, who were the greatest, most magnificent and best writers of the day? You will make known to us what they wrote, why and what type of literature they wrote.

BROWN-M. [rising and dropping a curtsey]. Your honor and highness, William Shakespeare Freeman was the greatest, most magnificent and best dramatist. He wrote that world-famous drama, "Hamlet in a Pickle." He wrote it to get revenge on his mother-in-law. The marvelous poet, Florence Greene Tennyson, wrote "To Bob or not to Bob" to relieve her conscience. The authorship was, however, disputed by Margaret Mower-or-Less. The latter feminine declared it to be her undisputed property and that her title for it was "To Bob R. or not to Bob R." The greatest novelist of the era was Charles Dickens Pillsbury, who wrote that eternal book, "Why Cows Leave Home." He wrote it, as historians of good repute have it, in a spasm of temper. For historians there then existed the Herodotus family, whose personnel was Ina Wolfe H., Irving Agel H., Edward Williams H., Frederick Safford H., Edmund Boyce H., and Eleanor Weston H. They together compiled that most authoritative text which yet strives to enlighten all ignoramuses, "The History of Indiana, the Home of the Indians," in the year 2 A. D.

Honored ladies and revered gentlemen, I have spoken. You have listened. I remain, yours affectionately. [Curtseys and sits down.]

PROF. Without further dalliance, Kershner-Jacob, you will rise and give minute information as to oratory in the year 1927 A. D.

KERSHNER-J. [rising and bowing]. Feminines and masculines of this throng, give your attention to me that ye may cease to remain unenlightened. Of that period of which we are now studying, orations were orated profusely by many orators in the profession of oratory. The team or combination of Lisman and Basralian traveled far and widely, discussing and vociferating upon the prospect of forming an ant union for the consolidation of ant hills. Also magnificent in this profession were Stuart Demosthenes Corbin, Lucille Fine Webster, and Lawrence Gladstone Forville, who formed a corporation for loud speakers and preached and elucidated upon the subject of meeting the bi-weekly instalments for lawn mowing and snow shoveling in Alaska, at that time a much discussed topic. Now, children, you know more than you did when I began to orate on the subject of oratory in 1927 A. D. [Sits.]

PROF. Who were the greatest statesmen and stateswomen of the era, Towne-Raymond? Be brief and concise and do not elaborate upon unnecessary trifles. I am your example.

TOWNE-R. [rising and bowing, with the look of a hunted animal on his coun tenance]. I-I-I don't—do—not—know. [Sits down abruptly, looking straight before him.]

PROF. What? What? What have you stated? You do not have the knowledge to answer to what I asked? [Rising.] What? What? You are hereby—.

TOWNE-R [rising hurriedly]. Orville Bishop Cicero, Elmer Bullock Cæsar, Eric Franklin Bruce, Rachael Portia Bayarsky, Donald Clay Josselyn, Marvin Hardy Washington, Abraham Lincoln Likosky, Grace Cashman Ferguson and Thomas Jefferson Loudon were all great states-people. They jointly decided to make a world-wide war and as a body rule every nation then in existence, including the Scandinavian. They didn't succeed, but the ancients of the time conceded the fact that the plan was an especially brilliant one. [Bows and sits.]

PROF. [who has been standing during the preceding speech, sits and speaks severely]. It is well that you have redeemed yourself in my mighty opinion. If you had not done so, your penalty, as you undoubtedly realize, would have been expulsion. [To the class.] The assembly herein thronged will prepare for discussion twenty-four hours from one hour ago, a comparison of the situation of the universe at the time of the period of which we have spoken today, namely, 1927 onward, with that of our own time. If one of you ignorant morsels of humanity does not have the knowledge required at that time, you will all be expelled. Don't slam the door.

[Class as a whole rise, bow and, with hand at forehead in saluting attitude.] We pledge allegiance to our professoress of ancient history, giver of ancient knowledge, kindest of heart, and we promise to be good.

Ode to the Boys of '27

If you're sitting in the movies
With a dainty, little miss,
And the hero gives the heroine
A long and lingering kiss;
And a little head creeps toward yours
With a gentle sigh or two,
Well, I can guess what I'd do;
I'd do the same as you.

If you're strolling on a long walk
With a winsome little girl,
And the breezes chanced to loosen
A blonde (or brunette) curl;
If she turned her dear face upward
And you saw her eyes so blue;
Well, I can guess what I'd do;
I'd do the same as you.

"Hollywood"

One night I dreamed that we were stars of moving picture fame,
The other stars went on a strike just before we came.
We played the rôles with great success as you all know we might,
The audience in the theater applauded us that night.

They called for Mary Pickford (who was Vera all the time)
And her sweet acting really was worth a shining dime;
"Red" Williams as Ben Turpin surely took the cake,
He made the children laugh and scream until their sides did ache.

I can still see Marvin Hardy in the cast of "Buffalo Bill,"
His acting was declared supreme, but he's noted for his skill;
"Al" Parks upon his good steed "Tony" over the plains did ride,
He grabbed the heroine from the rogue and placed her by his side.

Babe Peggy's part was played quite well by petite Lutie Grue;
The rôle of Jackie Coogan, Bill Freeman played well, too;
Vesta Babson and Olga Hallock were the gossips in the play,
And the sister of the hero was played by Gladys Grey.

Perhaps we may not all be famous and go to take the lead
But here's a parting wish to all, I hope you will succeed
Not only in the movies, but also in real life, too,
And then we'll turn back to Burlington High and whisper,
"I thank you."

Girls of '27

Prettiest girl I've seen is Phyllis Arbuthnot;
Lovelier than any queen is Eleanor Weston;
Girls with curls go walking by
Dainty, graceful, bold and shy,
But the one that takes my eye is Sophia Saiger.

Every girl made into one is Lucille Fine;
Sweetish girl to look upon is Helene Clay;
I've seen 'em short and seen 'em tall
I've seen 'em big and seen 'em small,
But the finest one of all is Celia Ready.

Best of all the girls on earth is Harriett Smith;
One that all the rest is worth is Ruth MacDonald;
Some have beauty, some have grace,
Some look nice in silk and lace,
But the one that takes first place is Vera Barbour.

Sweetest singer in the land is Pearl Norman;
She that has the softest hand is Grace Brown;
Tenderest, gentlest pal is she,
Ful of fun as she can be;
But the only girl for me is Dorothy Taylor.

Bet if there's an angel here, it's Roselene Manor;
If any boy has a sweetheart dear, she's Margaret Mott;
Take the girls that artists draw
Of all the girls I ever saw,
The only one without a flaw is Elizabeth Towne.

Dedicated to "Our English Teacher"

Four and twenty seniors
Seated in a room,
Waiting for an English test,
Faces full of gloom.

It came, they saw, it conquered;
And, filing from the room,
Those four and twenty seniors
Knew they'd met their doom.

A pretty blonde is "Becky" Seaver,
Her friends all swear they'll never leave 'er.

"Jimmy" Allen plays the violin,
To Fritz Kreisler he must be kin.

Behold our "Phil" as she walks by,
Her stately grace charms every eye.

Our Vesta's twenty-seven's pal;
You must admit she is some gal!

Vera shines on the varsity squad
And her many merits we applaud.

When looms in sight our joyous "Lyd"
All other shining lights are hid.

Basralian hails from lands afar,
To him our gates are wide ajar.

Maurice Bevins, known as "Beef,"
To gloomy hearts brings quick relief.

A pleasant maiden is our Fay
Though her thoughts are usually on Ray.

When Orville Bishop plays in the band
The girls all sigh, "Oh, ain't he grand!"

"Flossie" Bissette, our athletic maid,
You'd never guess she was prim and staid.

Many a boy will walk a mile
To see Eleanor Booth's sunshiny smile.

The girls all sigh when Bruce goes by,
That's he's fallen for a Junior they can't deny.

When our dimpling Grace trips the light fantastic
She's eyed with expressions most ecstatic.

A sweet, modest maid is Alice Claflin;
Intellectual mysteries she's great at unravelin'.

New to us this year is Helene Clay,
But we'll stand by her in every way.

"Stew" Corbin of "Captain Kinski" fame,
For Burlington High will win a great name.

If

If you can keep your head when all about you
    Are losing theirs and blaming it on you;
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
    But make allowance for their doubting, too:
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
    Or being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Of being hated, don't give way to hating,
    And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise;

If you can dream, and not make dreams your master;
    If you can think, and not make thoughts your aim,
If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster
    And treat those two imposters just the same:
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken
    Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken,
    And stoop and build 'em up with worn-out tools;

If you make one heap of all your winnings
    And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
And lose, and start again at your beginnings
    And never breathe a word about your loss:
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
    To serve your turn long after they are gone,
And so hold on when there is nothing in you
    Except the Will which says to them: "Hold on!"

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
    Or walk with Kings, nor lose the common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
    If all men count with you, but none too much:
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
    With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
    And—which is more—you'll be a Man, my son!

Friday, 3. We're glad it's Friday.

Saturday, 4. Debating Club meeting.

Monday, 6. We have three speakers in assembly. Stuart Corbin asks us to mention the Register ads to the merchants. Lawrence Forville speaks about "True and False Success." Mr. Weingartner, of the National Fruit Dispatch, gave a very interesting talk about the history of our and other varieties of the banana and also its value to us.

Tuesday, 7. Usually a stray dog or cat makes so-called "copy" for the poor (?) locals editor, but this one seems unlucky!!!!

Wednesday, 8. Senior class meeting.

Thursday, 9. Rehearsals seem to be going on around the building. French Club meeting. Blue tickets and pink tickets appear around school.

Friday, 10. Assembly. Old clothes wanted at the superintendent's office. Fred Householder (????) speaks about magician's entertainment. We roar over Sophie Levin's (???) speech on "Why I Stand Before You." Miss Hamlet wants copies of "O'Sullivan" brought to Room 14. Our orchestra broadcasts from U. V. M. in the evening.

Saturday, 11. Senior Dramatic Club meeting.

Monday, 13. No assembly! Cries of joy and sorrow are heard.

Tuesday, 14. Meeting of presidents or heads of all school organizations.

Wednesday, 15. We wander about school, waiting for vacation.

Friday, 17. We hear all about fruits till our sides ache from that famous gentleman, Abraham Likosky. "Yes, We Have No Bananas." Russell Colburn, another famous gentleman, speaks to us on basketball. Report cards!!!

Saturday, 18. French Club entertainment.

Monday, 20. No assembly! We scan the bulletin board for notices. Instead we see the Honor Roll minus our name!

Tuesday, 21. It draws nearer!

Wednesday, 22. And nearer!!

Thursday, 23. The weaker (?) sex meet in assembly hall and are told by Mrs. Buck about physical culture in new Gym. Holiday Hop!!

Friday, 24. It's here! What? Vacation!!

Saturday, 25. Merry Christmas.

Monday, 27. Basketball practice in gym.

January, Saturday, 1. And a Happy New Year!!

Monday, 3. We go to work on a new schedule! Vacation is over!?

Tuesday, 4. We try to get used to the new schedule.

Wednesday, 5. All the clocks are crazy but we get out at 11.30 so why worry?

Thursday, 6. What are these "Pickles," anyway?

Friday, 7. No assembly.

Saturday, 8. Debating Club meeting.

"Everything Is Hotsy Totsy Now"....."Eddie" and "Lyd"

Monday, 10. Everybody's hungry and "fidgety" at assembly 11.30. Virginia Tubbs asks us to make posters for OREAD Stunt Nite.

Tuesday, 11. Rehearsing for "Pickles"!

Wednesday, 12—Solid session! A few who have money replenish empty stomachs at the cafeteria.

Thursday, 13. Orchestra concert tickets come out. Also tickets for "Pickles."

Friday, 14. Mr. Colburn talks about our orchestra concert and selling tickets. Professor Lansel of M. I. T. gives us a very interesting and explanatory talk on engineering and the way to enter M. I. T. and stay there. Game: Girls, Spaulding 31, B. H. S. 20. Boys, Spaulding 43, B. H. S. 13. 'N the band, too. Wasn't it great?

Saturday, 15. Debating teams', OREAD and Register Boards' pictures taken for the OREAD.

Monday, 17. We have a most distinguished gentleman, Mr. Bruce Butterfield, introduce another most distinguished gentleman, Senator W. H. Crockett. He gave us a most instructive and interesting talk on Vermont's independence.

Tuesday, 18. Special assembly!! For the concert and "Pickles." Mr. Pearl introduces Mrs. Deyett and Mr. Householder, who entertained us and used most persuasive tones to cause us to buy tickets. Lucille Fine spoke for about one minute. B. H. S. 37. C. H. S. 17.

Wednesday, 19. We rehearse for "Pickles."

Thursday, 20. And still we rehearse!!

Friday, 21. The buildings are formally opened to the public! Why, B. H. S. and B. H. S. "Gym" of course. Solid session for us! Orchestra concert—the lights go out, but all's well.

Saturday, 22. Two more victories for our teams: Boys—B. H. S. 43, Waterbury 17. Girls—B. H. S. 45, Montpelier Seminary 18.

Monday, 24. We all try to pass during the first five minutes of the periods but we hear on all sides "suspicious"!

Tuesday, 25. Exemption from exams for those who get ambitious in certain classes!

Wednesday, 26. Solid session! "Pickles" predominates! Senior girls take a game from the Sophomore girls.

Friday, 28. Solid session! Why? "Pickles," of course!

Monday, 31. Are you ready? What's up?

February, Tuesday, 1. Exams.

Wednesday, 2. And

Thursday, 3. Then some.

Friday, 4. Thank goodness! They're over and the fatal (?) day will come.

Monday, 7. The fates prophesy and we are (???) the victims.

Tuesday, 8. We're off toward the goal. Some of us determined one way or another. Report cards!

Wednesday, 9. A special (?) Easter class in chemistry starts! Smarties! We hear from "Buck" in a special assembly to pep us up for the C. H. S. game.

"High, High Up in the Hills".....The "P. G.'s"

Friday, 11. We yell and sing a little. Game, B. H. S. 27, St. A. H. S. 18. Rah!

Saturday, 12. Senior Dramatic Club meets and has a good time.

Monday, 14. No assembly!

Tuesday, 15. The teachers have a party. We begin to have spring fever. Off with the overshoes.

Wednesday, 16. Poor boys have assembly. The girls go home!

Thursday, 17. Burton Holmes lectures in Assembly Hall.

Friday, 18. We are resigned and decide to try to make our reports look better.

Monday, 21. No school!

Tuesday, 22. 'Ray for "Georgie" Washington. No school!

Wednesday, 23. We get up in time for school.

Thursday, 24. Chemistry classes see "movin'" pictures.

Friday, 25. Assembly! Debating team receives pins. Pep meeting! We cheer ourselves hoarse and are ravenous!

Monday, 28. History classes see pictures, ancient history hears Mrs. Deyett. We others are rather bored!

March, Tuesday, 1. Much excitement over voting, but we're excited over basketball. Tournament's comin'.

Wednesday, 2. Nothing happens.

Thursday, 3. Debate. Vergennes 0, Burlington 3. Rather good, eh—what?

Friday, 4. We have assembly. New songs and cheers. An' didn't we cheer? I'll say yes. All OREAD material in!

Our High School Days

We have come to the end of our high school days,
And now we must say good-bye,
But with classmates dear who are gathered here
We will honor old Burlington High.
Do you know what the end of our high school days
Can mean to us here tonight,
When with work well done, and diplomas won,
We start forth on Life's great fight?

Well, this is the end of our high school days,
Fare you well our teachers true,
As we go through life, we shall always strive,
To honor and reverence you;
For memory has painted these glorious years
With colors that never fade,
And we find at the end of our high school days
The legion of friends we've made.

The Oread

An Oread, a mountain spirit,
Garmented in green and silver,
Darted swiftly in the morning
Over soft green open spaces
Where the sunlight filtered downward
Midst the birches, pines, and beeches.
She touched the leaves, the trunks, the branches,
With the magic of her fingers;
Soon the forest gleamed with silver;
Soon the mortals, eager, joyous,
Wandering up the mountain pathways,
Saw the gleaming lines of silver
Left there by the mountain spirit.

Green and silver! May our Oread
Hold a lustrous magic ever
To us mortals who will open,
Turn and read its friendly pages.
Pictured faces there will greet us
And the old-time memories thrill us
As we find ourselves together,
Loya! class of twenty-seven.
